

Basic English Book for the Military

PRÓLOGO

La mayor integración de los Ejércitos de las naciones de nuestro entorno en estructuras supranacionales para, con la puesta en común de las capacidades conjuntas, poder responder a los nuevos desafíos de seguridad que pudieran amenazar la estabilidad mundial, ha obligado a que el Ejército de Tierra español se adapte a las nuevas circunstancias en consonancia con los cambios experimentados por la sociedad española, pasando de un Ejército territorial de guarnición, a otro de proyección, con una alta disponibilidad y en el que se ha profesionalizado la tropa.

Este operar conjunto con otros Ejércitos exige, además de contar con armamento y materiales interoperables con los de nuestros aliados, el disponer de unos procedimientos operativos comunes. No obstante, aun siendo importante lo anterior, resultaría de todas luces imposible el llevar a buen término este trabajo conjunto, si los componentes de cada uno de estos Ejércitos son incapaces de comunicarse en un lenguaje común. Siendo el inglés la lengua adoptada por la comunidad internacional como el idioma en el que se desarrollan normalmente las operaciones militares, se hace necesario que los componentes del Ejército tengan una formación adecuada en este idioma.

Este libro de inglés ha sido concebido y diseñado para responder fundamentalmente a las necesidades que en esta lengua tengan los componentes del ET., estando orientado a sus niveles básicos, y sirviendo como pilar en el que se asienten posteriores conocimientos y niveles más avanzados.

En consecuencia, considero que el Basic English Book for the Military es un libro pensado para los profesionales de las armas y que constituye una herramienta muy útil para iniciarse en los fundamentos de la lengua inglesa.

GRAMMAR

1.-ARTICLES (ARTÍCULOS)

El artículo determinado "the" es invariable, esta única forma se usa para el masculino, el femenino, el singular y el plural:

Examples:

English	Spanish
the girl	la chica
the boy	el chico
the girls	las chicas
the boys	los chicos

El artículo indefinido para las formas del masculino, del femenino y del neutro singular es "a", pero se cambia por "an" delante de "h" muda y de vocal cuyo sonido no sea [ju:]

Examples:

English	Spanish
a girl	una chica
a boy	un chico
a dog	un perro
an arm	un brazo
an hour	una hora
a human being	un ser humano

El artículo indefinido no tiene plural, y en su lugar se usan adjetivos indefinidos, la forma "some" para oraciones afirmativas y "any" para oraciones negativas e interrogativas:

Examples:

English	Spanish
I have some questions.	Tengo algunas preguntas.
Is there any question?	¿Hay alguna pregunta?
I don't have any question.	No tengo ninguna pregunta.
He has a question.	(Él) tiene una pregunta.
There are some students.	Hay algunos estudiantes.
There is a student.	Hay un estudiante.

2.-POSSESSION (POSESIÓN)

2.1.-SAXON GENITIVE (GENITIVO SAJÓN)

En inglés para expresar posesión o pertenencia se puede emplear el genitivo sajón. Se forma añadiendo al nombre del poseedor una "s" precedida de un apóstrofo. Para expresar posesión también puede utilizarse la preposición "of" ('de'), como ocurre en español. Cuando se usa el genitivo sajón, el orden de las palabras en la oración se altera y se coloca el poseedor en primer lugar seguido del apóstrofo y la "s", y a continuación el objeto poseído sin artículo.

Examples:

English	Spanish
the mother of the girl	la madre de la niña
the girl's mother
the hats of these men	los sombreros de estos hombres
these men's hats

La "s" del genitivo, en los siguientes casos, se omite aunque se conserva el apóstrofo :

a) Si el poseedor es un sustantivo en plural acabado en "s":

English	Spanish
these girls' mother	la madre de estas niñas
these boys' pens	los bolígrafos de estos niños

b) Si el poseedor es un sustantivo singular acabado en "s":

English	Spanish
Moses' law	la ley de Moisés
Jesús' friend	el amigo de Jesús

Sin embargo, si el poseedor es un sustantivo monosílabo terminado en "s", se conserva la "s" del genitivo:

Examples:

English	Spanish
Bess's table	la mesa de Bess

El genitivo sajón se emplea con nombres propios, sustantivos que denotan persona, sustantivos que denotan seres animados, etc.:

Examples:

English	Spanish
Mary's cat	el gato de Mary
my sister's book	el libro de mi hermana
the dog's tail	el rabo del perro

Si el poseedor es un sustantivo compuesto o bien son varios poseedores, el genitivo se forma con el último sustantivo:

Examples:

English	Spanish
my sister-in-law's car	el coche de mi cuñada
Mary and Peter's house	la casa de Mary y Peter

2.-DEGREES OF COMPARISON (GRADOS DE COMPARACIÓN)

2.1.-SUPERIORITY COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES (GRADO COMPARATIVO DE SUPERIORIDAD Y SUPERLATIVO RELATIVO)

El grado comparativo de superioridad ("más + adjetivo") y el grado superlativo relativo ("el/ la/ los/ las más + adjetivo") de los adjetivos en inglés se forma:

a) Añadiendo al adjetivo positivo la terminación "er" para el comparativo de superioridad, y la terminación "est" para el superlativo relativo. Esto ocurre con los adjetivos monosílabos, con los bisílabos y con los trisílabos terminados en "ow", "er", "y", "e", "l":

Examples:

English
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
happy	happier	happiest
wise	wiser	wisest
easy	easier	easiest
cold	colder	coldest
yellow	yellower	yellowest

Spanish
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
feliz	más feliz	el más feliz
sabio	más sabio	el más sabio
fácil	más fácil	el más fácil
frío	más frío	el más frío
amarillo	más amarillo	el más amarillo

Para añadir las terminaciones propias del comparativo y superlativo se siguen las reglas usuales de ortografía que se han visto anteriormente, por ejemplo, las palabras terminadas en "y" precedida de consonante cambian la "y" por "i" antes de tomar la terminación correspondiente.

b) Los adjetivos calificativos monosílabos (aquellos compuestos por una sola sílaba) acabados en consonante precedida de vocal corta*, duplican dicha consonante final.

Examples:

English	Spanish
hot / hotter	cálido / más cálido
thin / thinner	delgado / más delgado

*Se entiende por "vocal corta" la existencia de una única vocal ("hot", "thin"), por el contrario, nótese que "cheap" también es un adjetivo calificativo monosílabo, sin embargo, está compuesto por dos vocales.

Recuerde que, por ejemplo, "cold" o "rich" tampoco duplican dicha consonante final ya que la consonante final está precedida de otra consonante.

c) El resto de adjetivos de dos o más sílabas forman el comparativo añadiendo "more" y el superlativo añadiendo "the most":

Examples:

English
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
terrible	more terrible	the most terrible sensible	more sensible	the most sensible candid	more candid	the most candid

Spanish
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
terrible	más terrible	el más terrible
sensato	más sensato	el más sensato
cándido	más cándido	el más cándido

2.2.-INFERIORITY COMPARATIVES

(GRADO DE INFERIORIDAD DEL ADJETIVO)

Para formar el grado de inferioridad del adjetivo ("menos + adjetivo", "el /la /los /las menos + adjetivo") siempre se utiliza la forma "less" en el comparativo, y "the least" en el superlativo, antepuesto al adjetivo (ya sea un adjetivo de una o más sílabas):

Examples:

English
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
terrible	less terrible	the least terrible
happy	less happy	the least happy

Spanish
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
terrible	menos terrible	el menos terrible
feliz	menos feliz	el menos feliz

2.3.-EQUALITY COMPARATIVES

(GRADO DE IGUALDAD DEL ADJETIVO)

La comparación de igualdad en inglés se forma con "as + adjetivo en grado positivo + as" ('tan + adjetivo + como') para las oraciones afirmativas. Para las oraciones negativas se emplea "so + adjetivo en grado positivo + as".

Examples:

English
Joan is as beautiful as Mary, but she is not so good as she is/ as her. *
I am not so lazy as you are/ as you. **

Spanish
Joan es tan guapa como Mary, pero no es tan buena como ella.
No soy tan perezoso como tú.

* Nótese que en la segunda parte de la estructura comparativa la construcción "she is" se puede sustituir por el pronombre personal "her".

 Nótese que en la segunda parte de la estructura comparativa la construcción "you are" se puede sustituir por el pronombre personal "you".

3.-IRREGULAR FORMS OF THE COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE

(FORMAS IRREGULARES DEL ADJETIVO COMPARATIVO Y SUPERLATIVO)

Varios adjetivos en inglés tienen la forma del comparativo y superlativo irregulares, y/o derivadas de otras raíces.

English
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
good	better	the best
bad	worse	the worst
little	less	the least
old	older/ elder	the oldest/ eldest

Spanish
Positive	Comparative	Superlative
bueno	mejor	el óptimo
malo	peor	el pésimo
pequeño	menos	el mínimo
viejo	más viejo mayor	el más viejo el mayor

(FORMACIÓN DE COMPARACIONES)

Para realizar comparaciones entre dos sustantivos en inglés se utiliza la siguiente estructura:

How to make comparisons
SUST + VERBO +	adjetivo en grado comparativo	+ THAN + SUST

Examples:

English
You are stronger than me.
My sister is taller than your mother.
You love him more than me, and less than her.

Spanish
(Tú) eres más fuerte que yo.
Mi hermana es más alta que tu madre.
(Tú) lo quieres (a él) más que yo, y menos que ella.

5.-THE ADVERB I (EL ADVERBIO I)

5.1.-WHERE TO PUT THE VERB (COLOCACIÓN DEL ADVERBIO)

A la hora de colocar los adverbios en inglés hay que tener en cuenta una serie de consideraciones:

a) si el verbo no tiene complemento, el adverbio sigue inmediatamente al verbo;

b) si tiene complemento y éste es corto, puede intercalarse entre el verbo y el adverbio;

Examples:

English	Spanish
He reads well .	(Él) lee bien .
She walks quickly .	(Ella) anda deprisa .

Examples:

English	Spanish
I shall read your letter now .	Leeré su carta ahora .
Put your hat on , please.	Póngase el sombrero, por favor.

c) los adverbios de tiempo indefinido y algunos de modo preceden generalmente al verbo;

Examples:

English	Spanish
I always read the newspaper.	Siempre leo el periódico.
He briefly told the news.	(Él) dijo las noticias brevemente .

d) sin embargo, los adverbios siguen al verbo "to be" y a los verbos anómalos;

Examples:

English	Spanish
He is never in time.	Nunca llega a tiempo.
I could hardly read it.	Apenas pude leerlo.

5.2.-ADVERBS CLASSIFICATION (CLASIFICACIÓN DE LOS ADVERBIOS)

Los adverbios en inglés según su significado se dividen en:

English
Place	Time	Manner	Quantity
here	early	so	only
there	late	quickly	rather in	before	certainly	almost out	after	thus	much
near	still far	soon

Spanish
Place	Time	Manner	Quantity
aquí	pronto	así	sólo
allí	tarde	deprisa	bastante
en	antes	ciertamente	casi
fuera	después	así	mucho
cerca	hasta
lejos	pronto

Examples:

English	Spanish
My sister is so nice!	¡Mi hermana es tan simpática!
Your house is very far from here .	Tu casa está muy lejos de aquí .

2 000 000	two million

Nótese que en inglés entre la decena y la unidad ("forty-five", 'cuarenta y cinco') no se emplea la conjunción "and" ('y') como ocurre en español. También hay que tener en cuenta que después de "million", "thousand" y "hundred" los números inferiores a cien deben ir precedidos por la conjunción "and" (1 304, "one thousand three hundred and four").

"Million", "thousand" y "hundred" son invariables, es decir, aparecen siempre en singular aunque su traducción en español pueda ser plural. Sin embargo, sí que tienen forma de plural cuando se utilizan como sustantivos:

Examples:

English	Spanish
Are there many books here?	¿Hay muchos libros aquí?
Yes, there are several hundreds .	Sí, hay varios centenares .

GRAMMAR

1.-THE ADVERB II (EL ADVERBIO II)

1.1.-“-LY” ENDING ADVERBS (ADVERBIOS TERMINADOS EN “-LY”)

La mayor parte de los adverbios de modo y de cantidad derivan de los adjetivos calificativos y participios pasados. La mayoría de estos adverbios terminan en “-ly”, equivalente a la terminación española “-mente”. Para formar adverbios, se añade “-y” a los adjetivos que terminan en “-ll”; los adjetivos que terminan en “-le” cambian la “e” por una “y”, así como los que terminan en “-ue” pierden la “e” antes de tomar la terminación “-ly”.

Sin embargo hay adjetivos que no tienen que sufrir modificación alguna para funcionar como adverbios:

Examples:

English	Spanish
proud/ proudly	orgullosa/ orgullosamente
full/ fully	completo/ completamente
noble/ nobly	noble/ noblemente
true/ truly	verdad/ verdaderamente friendly/ friendly	amistoso/ amistosamente
daily/ daily	diario/ diariamente
hard/ hard*	duro/ duramente

*Nótese que el adverbio “hard”, para referirse a “duramente” no añade la terminación “-ly”, ya que cambiaría su significado por el de ‘apenas’.

2.-ADVERB DEGREES (GRADOS DEL ADVERBIO)

Los adverbios en inglés, al igual que los adjetivos calificativos, admiten los grados de comparación. Los monosílabos y algunos bisílabos forman el comparativo añadiendo la terminación “-er”, y el superlativo, añadiendo la terminación “-est”.

Los polisílabos, categoría donde se incluyen casi todos los adverbios terminados en “-ly”, forman el comparativo anteponiendo el adverbio de cantidad “more” al adverbio comparado y colocando inmediatamente después de éste la conjunción “than”. El grado superlativo se consigue anteponiendo “the most” al adverbio.

Examples:

English
Yesterday I ate sooner than last week.
Spanish
Ayer comí más temprano que la semana pasada.

English
He works harder than Mary.
Spanish
Trabaja más duro que Mary.

English
I believe most honestly and strongly that...
Spanish
Creo de la manera más honesta y firme que...

Nótese que “far” puede ser tanto adjetivo calificativo como adverbio. En el primer supuesto (adjetivo), forma el comparativo en “farther” y el superlativo en “farthest”. En el segundo supuesto (adverbio), forma el comparativo y superlativo como se muestra en los ejemplos.

1.-EL NIÑO AND LA NIÑA (EL NIÑO Y LA NIÑA)

El Niño takes place in 1997-98. Peruvian fishermen call this phenomenon El Niño -the Spanish name for Christ child- because these effects on the Pacific Ocean occur around Christmas.

It is considered* extremely severe when it causes drought in one country and rampant floodings, in another.

Other phenomena observed with El Niño's appearance include forest fires in Indonesia. These fires create a cloud of smoke that chokes 20 million people and affect Southeast Asian cities. In Australia it causes droughts and bush fires.

In the late 1998, an episode of La Niña -a cooling of those same tropical Pacific waters- changes the weather conditions. Opposite to El Niño, droughts occur in areas drenched by El Niño.

Climate historians speculate that many significant events are linked* to El Niño.

* Se considera.

 "Phenomena" es la forma de plural de "phenomenon".

GRAMMAR

1. "THERE IS" AND "THERE ARE" SENTENCES AND PARTITIVES (IMPERSONALES CON "THERE IS" Y "THERE ARE" Y PARTITIVOS)

1.1. "THERE IS" AND "THERE ARE" SENTENCES (ORACIONES CON "THERE IS" Y "THERE ARE")

Algunas de las oraciones impersonales en presente, que en español se forman con "hay" se construyen en inglés utilizando "there is" (para hacer referencia a la existencia de un objeto, ser, etc.) o "there are" (para hacer referencia a la existencia de más de un objeto, ser, etc.), en inglés, a diferencia de lo que ocurre en español, el verbo de estas oraciones concuerda con el sujeto. En español, sin embargo, se utiliza una misma forma verbal ("hay") para referirse a la existencia tanto de uno como de varios objetos, seres, fenómenos, etc.

Las oraciones interrogativas se construyen anteponiendo la forma verbal "is" o "are" a "there" y a continuación se colocan el sujeto y los complementos si los hubiera.

Examples:

Simple present
English
	Singular	Plural
Affirmative	There is a boy.	There are five boys.
Negative	There isn't any boy.	There aren't five boys.
Question	Is there any boy?	Are there five boys?

1.2.-THE USE OF "SOME" (EL USO DE "SOME")

"Some" equivale en español a "algo", "un poco de", "una pequeña cantidad de", "algún", "alguno(s)" "alguna(s)" o cualquier otra expresión que transmita la idea de partición indeterminada.

Examples:

English
There are some children in the house.
Spanish
Hay algunos niños en la casa.

English
I have some friends at school.
Spanish
Tengo algunos amigos en el colegio.

English
Pay me some attention.
Spanish
Présteme un poco de atención.

English
He gave some credit to him.
Spanish
Le dio algún crédito.

En español es muy frecuente omitir las palabras que expresan partición, sin embargo, en inglés es muy frecuente el uso de "some" para expresar esta idea; por lo tanto, en muchas ocasiones cuando en inglés se usa "some" en español no se usa ningún tipo de partícula partitiva.

English	Spanish
I shall take some wine.	Tomaré vino.
Give me some bread.	Dame pan.

El uso de “some” suele restringirse a las oraciones afirmativas, sin embargo, también puede utilizarse en oraciones interrogativas cuando se espera una respuesta afirmativa, como por ejemplo cuando se ofrece alguna cosa, especialmente si la pregunta interrogativa se formula de forma negativa.

Examples:

English	Won't you take some more tea?
Spanish	¿ No vas a tomar algo más de té?

English	Won't you take some time to think about the matter?
Spanish	¿ No vas a tomarte algo de tiempo para pensar sobre el asunto?

1.3.-THE USE OF “ANY” (EL USO DE “ANY”)

“Any”, al igual que “some”, es un término partitivo en inglés. “Any” se emplea en oraciones negativas e interrogativas. En español “any” puede traducirse por “ningún”, “ninguno(s)”, “ninguna(s)”, “algún”, “alguno(s)” o “alguna(s)”.

Examples:

English
There aren't any cats in the kennel.
Spanish
No hay ningún gato en la perrera.

English
Is there any teacher in the garden?
Spanish
¿Hay algún profesor en el jardín?

English
I don't have any brother.
Spanish
No tengo ningún hermano.

Al igual que con “some”, puede que en la traducción hacia el español de una oración en la que se emplee “any”, esta partícula no se traduzca por nada.

Examples:

English	Do you need any help?
Spanish	¿Necesitas ayuda?

Asimismo, “any” puede emplearse en oraciones afirmativas, pero entonces su significado difiere del de “some” y debe traducirse por “cualquier(a)”.

Examples:

English	Any day the war could break out.
Spanish	Cualquier día la guerra podría estallar.

English	Any upset could kill him.
Spanish	Cualquier disgusto podría matarlo.

English	It's true, ask any doctor.
Spanish	Es cierto, pregúntale a cualquier médico.

Por lo tanto, después de explicar los usos de “some” y “any”, podemos deducir que la respuesta afirmativa a una oración interrogativa en la que se use “any” hará uso de “some”.

English	Spanish
Have you got any sister?	¿Tienes alguna hermana?
Yes, I have got some .	Sí, tengo (algunas).

2.-QUANTITIES (CANTIDADES)

	countable	uncountable
large quantities	a lot(s) of (muchos/ as)	a lot(s) of (mucho/ a)
	(not) many ([no] muchos/ as)	(not) much ([no] mucho/ a)
	how many...? (¿cuántos/ as...?)	how much...? (¿cuánto/ a...?)
small quantities	a few (pocos/ as)	a little (poco/a) very few (muy pocos/ as)	very little (muy poco/ a)

A continuación vamos a ver algunos ejemplos de las expresiones de cantidad más comunes en inglés:

Examples:

English	How many apples do you have?
Spanish	¿ Cuántas manzanas tienes?
English	I have only got a few tapes.
Spanish	Sólo tengo unas pocas cintas.
English	They drank a lot of wine, not much beer, and very little lemonade.
Spanish	Bebieron mucho vino, poca (no mucha) cerveza y muy poca limonada.
English	Were there many people?
Spanish	¿Había muchas personas?
English	How much money do you have?
Spanish	¿ Cuánto dinero tienes?
English	I have got a lot of books, but I haven't got many CD's.
Spanish	Tengo muchos libros, pero no tengo muchos compactos.
English	I have much money.
Spanish	Tengo mucho dinero.
English	Was there much noise?
Spanish	¿Había mucho ruido?
English	There are many people here.
Spanish	Aquí hay mucha gente.

Muchos términos ingleses que hacen referencia a comidas son incontables, sin embargo los envases que las contienen son contables.

Examples:

English	How much water did they drink?
Spanish	¿ Cuánta agua bebieron?

English	How many bottles of water did they drink?
Spanish	¿ Cuántas botellas de agua bebieron?

2.1.-THE USE OF "TOO", "TOO MUCH", "TOO MANY", "ENOUGH", "NOT ENOUGH"

(EL USO DE "TOO", "TOO MUCH", "TOO MANY", "ENOUGH", "NOT ENOUGH")

Para expresar la idea de que hay algo en exceso utilizaremos este tipo construcciones:

Examples:

TOO	+	adjetivo
	+	much + sustantivo incontable
	+	many + sustantivo contable

Nótese que, frecuentemente, las connotaciones de este tipo de oraciones son negativas ya que expresan una queja por ese exceso:

Examples:

English	I don't want to go out. I'm too tired.
Spanish	No quiero salir. Estoy demasiado cansado.
English	I'm stressed. I've got too much work.
Spanish	Estoy estresado. Tengo demasiado trabajo.
English	There are too many chairs in this room.
Spanish	Hay demasiadas sillas en esta habitación.

"Enough" se escribe después del adjetivo pero antes del sustantivo y expresa la idea de suficiencia, de tener todo lo que uno necesita.

Examples:

English	My screen is too small. I'd like a bigger one.
Spanish	Mi pantalla es demasiado pequeña. Me gustaría una más grande.
English	My house is too big. I'd like a smaller one.
Spanish	Mi casa es demasiado grande. Me gustaría una más pequeña.

Examples:

English	Have you got enough money?
Spanish	¿Tienes suficiente dinero?
English	The table isn't big enough for six people.
Spanish	La mesa no es suficientemente grande para seis personas.
English	There isn't enough food for everybody.
Spanish	No hay suficiente comida para todos.

2.2.-“SOME”, “ANY” AND “NO” COMPOUNDS (INDEFINIDOS CON “SOME”, “ANY” Y “NO”)

Estos términos, como se ve, son compuestos de “any” y “some”, por lo tanto, se emplearán en frases negativas, afirmativas e interrogativas (de acuerdo con lo que se ha visto anteriormente) con la función de pronombres indefinidos.

Affirmative
People	somebody / someone alguien
Things	something algo
Places	somewhere alguna parte

Negative
People	nobody / no one nadie
Things	nothing nada
Places	nowhere ninguna parte

Negative and question
People	anybody / anyone nadie, alguien, cualquier persona
Things	anything nada, algo, cualquier cosa
Places	anywhere ninguna parte, alguna parte, cualquier parte

En inglés, al contrario que en español, no se debe negar dos veces. Por lo tanto, se utilizan los compuestos “anybody”, “anywhere” y “anything” cuando anteriormente se ha negado.

Examples:

English
I can't see anything with this fog.
I can see nothing with this fog.
Spanish
No puedo ver nada con esta niebla.

English
They are trapped, they can't go anywhere .
They are trapped, they can go nowhere .
Spanish
Están atrapados, no pueden ir a ninguna parte.

English
There wasn't anybody in the party.
There was nobody in the party.
Spanish
No había nadie en la fiesta.

Examples:

English	Are you doing anything tonight?
Spanish	¿Vas a hacer algo esta noche?
English	I met somebody interesting last night.
Spanish	Anoche conocí a alguien interesante.
English	Nobody turned up for the meeting.
Spanish	Nadie apareció en la reunión.

1.-BRITISH MEALS (COMIDAS BRITÁNICAS)

British people have at least three meals a day: breakfast, lunch and dinner. Many people take an additional meal known as tea. Breakfast is usually between half past seven and half past eight in the morning. It is a more substantial meal than the Spanish breakfast. British people usually choose: fruit, porridge, eggs (boiled or fried) bacon, ham, fish, bread and butter or toast with jam or marmalade, and coffee, tea or milk.

The second meal of the day is lunch. People have lunch between midday and half past one. It is a light meal consisting of a simple dish of hot or cold meat, a vegetable, bread and butter and pudding. Sometimes fruit and cheese too.

In the afternoon, at about four o'clock, it is tea time. People eat bread and butter, toast, biscuits, cake and tea. The last meal of the day is dinner. This is the principal meal. It starts at seven o'clock in the afternoon. In special occasions a full dinner consists of several courses: soup, fish, meat or poultry with potatoes and vegetables, pudding, cheese and dessert.

GRAMMAR

1.-SIMPLE PAST OF THE REGULAR VERBS (PASADO SIMPLE DE LOS VERBOS REGULARES)

1.1.-AFFIRMATIVE FORM (FORMA AFIRMATIVA)

El pasado de los verbos regulares en inglés se forma añadiendo la terminación "-ed" al infinitivo sin la preposición "to". El pasado simple en inglés equivale al pretérito imperfecto de indicativo español (e.g.: "I walked", 'andaba'; "I worked", 'trabajaba') y al pretérito perfecto simple de indicativo (e.g.: "I walked", 'anduve'; "I worked", 'trabajé'). A diferencia de lo que ocurre en presente, que se añade la terminación "-s" para formar la tercera persona del singular (e.g.: "he walks", '[él] anda'), en pasado simple existe una única forma verbal para todas las personas, tanto en afirmativa, como en negativa, como en interrogativa.

TO WALK ('andar')
Simple past / Affirmative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I walked	(yo) andaba; anduve
2 nd S	you walked	(tú) andabas; anduviste
		(usted) andaba; anduvo
3 rd S	he/ she/ it walked	(él/ ella/ *ello) andaba; anduvo
1 st P	we walked	(nosotros/ as) andábamos; anduvimos
2 nd P	you walked	(vosotros/ as) andabais; anduvisteis
		(ustedes) andaban; anduvieron
3 rd P	they walked	(ellos/ as) andaban; anduvieron

Para la adición de la terminación "-ed" hay que tener en cuenta las siguientes reglas ortográficas:

- a) Si el infinitivo termina en "e", dicha "e" desaparece al añadir "-ed":

Example:

English	to live/ I lived
Spanish	vivir/ (yo) vivía; viví

- b) Si termina en "y" precedida de consonante, al tomar la terminación "-ed" dicha "y" se cambia por "i"; pero si en lugar de estar precedida por consonante lo está por vocal, se sigue la regla general:

Examples:

English	to cry/ I cried
Spanish	llorar/ (yo) lloraba; lloré

English	to play/ I played
Spanish	jugar/ (yo) jugaba; jugué

1.2. NEGATIVE FORM (FORMA NEGATIVA)

La forma negativa del pasado simple en inglés de los verbos (salvo los verbos anómalos), se construye (para todas las personas) anteponiendo la forma negativa del pasado simple del auxiliar "to do" ("did not" o "didn't") al verbo en infinitivo sin la partícula "to".

TO WALK ('andar')
Simple past / Negative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I did not walk I didn't walk	(yo) no andaba; no anduve
2 nd S	you did not walk you didn't walk	(tú) no andabas; no anduviste
		(usted) no andaba; no anduvo
3 rd S	he/ she/ it did not walk he/ she/ it didn't walk	(él/ ella/ *ello) no andaba; no anduvo
1 st P	we did not walk we didn't walk	(nosotros/ as) no andábamos; no anduvimos
2 nd P	you did not walk you didn't walk	(vosotros/ as) no andabais; no anduvisteis
		(ustedes) no andaban; no anduvieron
3 rd P	they did not walk they didn't walk	(ellos/ as) no andaban; no anduvieron

1.3.-QUESTION FORM (FORMA INTERROGATIVA)

La forma interrogativa del pasado simple en inglés se forma con el auxiliar "to do" en pasado ("did") -tal y como se explica en la unidad 7-, seguido del sujeto y del verbo en infinitivo sin la partícula "to". La forma verbal es igual para todas las personas, incluso para la tercera de singular:

TO WALK ('andar')
Simple past / Question form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	did I walk?	¿andaba; anduve (yo)?
2 nd S	did you walk?	¿andabas; anduviste (tú)?
		¿andaba; anduvo (usted)?
3 rd S	did he/ she/ it walk?	¿andaba; anduvo (él/ ella/ *ello)?
1 st P	did we walk?	¿andábamos; anduvimos (nosotros/ as)?
2 nd P	did you walk?	¿andabais; anduvisteis (vosotros/ as)?
		¿andaban; anduvieron (ustedes)?
3 rd P	did they walk?	¿andaban; anduvieron (ellos/ as)?

1.4.- NEGATIVE QUESTION (FORMA INTERROGATIVO-NEGATIVA)

La forma interrogativo-negativa del pasado simple en inglés se forma con el auxiliar "to do" en pasado y la partícula negativa "not" ("did not" o "didn't") -tal y como se explica en la unidad 7- seguida del verbo en infinitivo sin la partícula "to". Existen dos maneras posibles para construir la forma interrogativo-negativa, no obstante, es más común el uso de la forma contraída ("didn't") que el de la forma no contraída ("did not"). La forma verbal es igual para todas las personas, incluso para la tercera de singular:

TO WALK ('andar')
Simple past / Negative question form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	did I not walk? didn't I walk?	¿no andaba; no anduve (yo)?
2 nd S	did you not walk? didn't you walk?	¿no andabas; no anduviste (tú)?
		¿no andaba; no anduvo (usted)?
3 rd S	did he/ she/ it not walk? didn't he/ she/ it walk?	¿no andaba; no anduvo (él/ ella/ *ello)?
1 st P	did we not walk? didn't we walk?	¿no andábamos; no anduvimos (nosotros/ as)?
2 nd P	did you not walk? didn't you walk?	¿no andabais; no anduvisteis (vosotros/ as)?
		¿no andaban; no anduvieron (ustedes)?
3 rd P	did they not walk? didn't they walk?	¿no andaban; no anduvieron (ellos/ as)?

2.-PAST SIMPLE OF THE IRREGULAR VERBS (PASADO SIMPLE DE LOS VERBOS IRREGULARES)

En inglés hay un gran número de verbos que toman formas irregulares para las oraciones en pasado simple afirmativas (ver lista de verbos irregulares). En el resto de oraciones en pasado simple (las negativas, las interrogativas y las interrogativo-negativas) estos verbos se comportan como verbos regulares:

Examples:

English	Spanish
When did you go to Madrid?	¿Cuándo fuiste a Madrid?
I went to Madrid last week.	Fui a Madrid la semana pasada.
Didn't you go to Barcelona?	¿No fuiste a Barcelona?
No, I didn't go to Barcelona.	No, no fui a Barcelona.

3.-SIMPLE PAST OF THE VERB "TO BE" (PASADO SIMPLE DEL VERBO "TO BE")

3.1.-AFFIRMATIVE FORM (FORMA AFIRMATIVA)

El verbo "to be" es un verbo anómalo, por lo tanto para formar el pasado simple no hay que seguir las reglas que hemos visto con anterioridad, sino que hay que aprender las formas irregulares. Para la primera y tercera persona del singular la forma es "was", para el resto de las personas es "were".

TO BE ('ser; estar')
Simple past / Affirmative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I was	(yo) era; fui (yo) estaba; estuve
2 nd S	you were	(tú) eras; fuiste (tú) estabas; estuviste
		(usted) era; fue (usted) estaba; estuvo
3 rd S	he/ she/ it was	(él/ ella/ *ello) era; fue (él/ ella/ *ello) estaba; estuvo
1 st P	we were	(nosotros/ as) éramos; fuimos (nosotros/ as) estábamos; estuvimos
2 nd P	you were	(vosotros/ as) erais; fuisteis (vosotros/ as) estabais; estuvisteis
		(ustedes) eran; fueron (ustedes) estaban; estuvieron
3 rd P	they were	(ellos/ as) eran; fueron (ellos/ as) estaban; estuvieron

3.2.-NEGATIVE FORM (FORMA NEGATIVA)

Las formas verbales del pasado simple del verbo "to be" en negativa son "was not" / "wasn't" para la primera y tercera persona del singular y "were not" / "weren't" para el resto de las personas.

TO BE ('ser; estar')
Simple past / Affirmative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I was not I wasn't	(yo) no era; no fui (yo) no estaba; no estuve

3.3. QUESTION FORM (FORMA INTERROGATIVA)

Como se ha visto en el punto 1.2. de la unidad 7, el verbo "to be" en su forma interrogativa no hace uso del auxiliar "to do". Para construir oraciones interrogativas en pasado simple con el verbo "to be" hay que seguir el mismo patrón que se emplea para las de presente simple, con la salvedad de que hay que cambiar las formas "am" e "is" por "was", y la forma "are", por "were".

TO BE ('ser; estar') Simple past / Question form
WAS / WERE	+	SUJETO	+ (complementos) ?

3 rd P	were they?	¿eran; fueron (ellos/ as)? ¿estaban; estuvieron (ellos/ as)?

3.4.- NEGATIVE QUESTION FORM (FORMA INTERROGATIVO-NEGATIVA)

Para construir oraciones interrogativo-negativas en inglés con el verbo "to be" hay dos posibilidades: (1) utilizar la forma contraída o (2) utilizar la forma no contraída. Lo más común es (como se ha visto en el punto 1.2. de la unidad 7) usar la forma contraída:

La forma contraída sigue esta estructura:

TO BE ('ser; estar') Simple past / Contracted negative question form
WASN'T / WEREN'T	+	SUJETO	+ (complementos) ?

La forma no contraída sigue esta estructura:

TO BE ('ser; estar') Simple past / Negative question form
WAS/ WERE	+	SUJETO	+ NOT + (complementos) ?

TO BE ('ser; estar') Simple past / Negative question form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	wasn't I? was I not?	¿no era; no fui (yo)? ¿no estaba; no estuve (yo)?

1.-PREJUDICES (PREJUICIOS)

There are a lot of prejudices according to nationalities. As Albert Einstein said, it is easier to split an atom than to erase prejudices. For example, Danish people are thought to be blond and to row in Viking boats, drinking a lot of beer; German people are considered to drink too much beer, to eat frankfurters and to have a straight mind (everything must go the right way); European people think that Swiss people do things very slowly; people from Russia are considered to drink too much vodka. Normally, French people are considered to be arrogant about their language and to have the best European food. Spanish people are thought to be brave and party lovers and to like bullfights too. British people are believed to be snobs, to be always on time and to drink tea; people think that British people do the opposite things European people do in the continent, for example, driving on the left side. Italian mothers are thought to wear the trousers at home and to cook a lot of pasta and pizza. Italian men are considered to love football and to live at their parents' house until the age of thirty.

GRAMMAR

1.-QUESTIONS II (ORACIONES INTERROGATIVAS II)

1.1.-WH QUESTIONS (INTERROGATIVAS PARCIALES)

Hasta el momento hemos visto formas de construir oraciones interrogativas basadas en la inversión del orden de los elementos y/o en la utilización del auxiliar "to do". Estas oraciones interrogativas se conocen en español como interrogativas totales y en inglés como "yes/no questions"; esto quiere decir que la oración se contesta con una afirmación o con una negación.

Examples:

English	Spanish
Isn't she pretty? Yes, she is.	¿No es guapa? Sí, lo es.
Do you like football? No, I don't.	¿Te gusta el fútbol? No, no me gusta.

A continuación vamos a ver las interrogativas parciales. Otra forma de construir oraciones en inglés que se basa, además de en la inversión y en la utilización del auxiliar "to do", en el uso de pronombres interrogativos ("what", "who", "which", etc.) Debido a que la gran mayoría de los pronombres interrogativos ingleses empiezan con las letras "wh", este tipo de oraciones interrogativas se llaman "wh questions". Las oraciones interrogativas que hasta el momento habíamos visto, se contestaban afirmativa o negativamente (e.g.: "Do you like apples? Yes, I do/ No, I don't"), sin embargo, las "wh questions" necesitan otro tipo de respuesta (e.g.: "Where did you go? I went home"). Las partículas interrogativas con las que se construyen este tipo de oraciones son las siguientes:

English	Spanish
what	qué
which	qué cuál / cuáles
who	quién / quienes
where	dónde
when	cuándo
how	cómo
why	por qué

"Which" sirve para distinguir entre varias personas o cosas. "What" para preguntar sobre la naturaleza, calidad, etc. de un ser. "What" en sentido absoluto significa también "¿qué?", "¿qué cosa?". Con el verbo "to be" sirve para preguntar la profesión, el estado, etc. de alguien.

Examples:

English	Spanish
Where are you from?	¿De dónde eres?
Where is she?	¿ Dónde está?
When is your birthday?	¿ Cuándo es tu cumpleaños?
When did they eat?	¿ Cuándo comieron?
How are you?	¿ Cómo estás?
How is your house?	¿ Cómo es tu casa?

1.2. HOW TO FORM WH QUESTIONS (FORMACIÓN DE LAS WH QUESTIONS)

a) Para formar este tipo de oraciones interrogativas en pasado y presente simple con verbos no anómalos (es decir, que no sean, por ejemplo, el verbo "to be"), lo único que hay que hacer es anteponer una partícula interrogativa a una oración construida con el auxiliar "to do" (tal y como se ha visto en el punto 1.1 de la unidad 7 y en el punto 1.3. de la unidad 8):

Wh questions

PARTÍCULA INTERROGATIVA (what, which, who, where, ...)	+	AUXILIAR "TO DO" (conjugado en presente o pasado)
+
SUJETO +	Verbo en INFINITIVO sin la partícula "TO"	+ (complementos) ?

Examples:

English	Spanish
Where do they go?	¿ A dónde van?
What do you do?	¿ Qué haces?
When did you see Mary?	¿ Cuándo viste a Mary?
Why does she want to do it?	¿ Por qué quiere hacer eso?
How did you find it?	¿ Cómo lo encontraste?

b) Hay ocasiones en las que para formar oraciones interrogativas parciales con verbos no anómalos en presente y pasado simple se utiliza el auxiliar "do". Estas oraciones son aquellas en las que las partículas interrogativas "who" o "which" hacen referencia al sujeto que lleva a cabo la acción. La partícula "which" va acompañada por un sustantivo y conjuntamente ejercen la función de sujeto, mientras que "who" es en sí el sujeto, por esta misma razón no es necesario que vaya acompañado por un sustantivo. La forma de construir este tipo de oraciones es la siguiente:

Wh questions
Partícula interrogativa WHICH	+	SUST.	+	Verbo CONJUGADO en presente o pasado simple + (complmnts.)?

Wh questions
Partícula interrogativa WHO	+	verbo CONJUGADO en presente o pasado simple	+	(complementos)?

Examples:

English	Spanish
Who cares?	¿A quién le importa?
Who opened the door?	¿ Quién abrió la puerta?
Who ate here?	¿ Quién comió aquí?
Which boy answered the question?	¿ Qué chico contestó la pregunta?

c) Para formar las wh questions con el verbo anómalo "to be" en presente o pasado simple se debe seguir este orden:

Wh questions with the verb "to be"
PARTÍCULA INTERROGATIVA (what, which, who, where,...)	+	Verbo "TO BE" (conjugado en presente o pasado)	+	SUJETO + (complementos)?

Examples:

English	Spanish
Where are you from?	¿De dónde eres?
What is it?	¿ Qué es esto?
When were you at home?	¿ Cuándo estuviste en casa?
Why am I so nervous?	¿ Por qué soy tan nervioso?
How was she?	¿ Cómo estaba?

2.-HOW TO WRITE A LETTER IN ENGLISH (CORRESPONDENCIA EN INGLÉS)

2.1.-DATE AND PLACE OF ORIGIN (FECHA Y DIRECCIÓN DEL REMITENTE)

Según el lugar de procedencia del remitente, la fecha y dirección de éste se ubicarán en un lugar o en otro de la carta. Por un lado, los norteamericanos (estadounidenses y canadienses) colocan la dirección del remitente en el ángulo superior izquierdo de la carta. Ésta va seguida de la fecha, que puede ir tanto a la derecha como a la izquierda. Por otro lado, en Gran Bretaña la dirección del remitente se coloca en el ángulo superior derecho de la carta. La fecha se coloca o bien debajo de ésta o bien debajo de la dirección del destinatario a la izquierda.

2.2.-OPENING A LETTER (SALUDO)

Las fórmulas más comunes son:

• Dear
• Dear Mrs Smith
• Dear Sir
• Dear Madam
• Dear Sir or Madam
• Dear Sir / Madam
• Dear Sirs

Cuando en la carta se emplea el formato tradicional con sangría, estas fórmulas van seguidas de una coma. Por lo tanto:

• Dear Ms Smith,

En el inglés norteamericano también se utilizan los dos puntos. Por lo tanto:

• Dear Madam:

Cuando se trata de cartas en formato sin sangría, existe una tendencia cada vez más generalizada a no emplear puntuación ni en el encabezamiento ni en la fórmula de despedida.

2.3.-CLOSING A LETTER (FÓRMULA DE DESPEDIDA)

Las fórmulas más usadas en inglés norteamericano son "Sincerely yours" y "Sincerely". Los británicos se inclinan por el uso de "Yours sincerely", no obstante, utilizan la fórmula "Yours faithfully" en cartas formales dirigidas a un destinatario que no se conoce. Ésta es la fórmula que debe emplearse cuando el encabezamiento de la carta es "Dear Sir", "Dear Madam" o "Dear Sir or Madam".

Si no se tiene confianza con la persona a la que va dirigida la carta, ésta puede concluirse con las fórmulas que a continuación se citan:

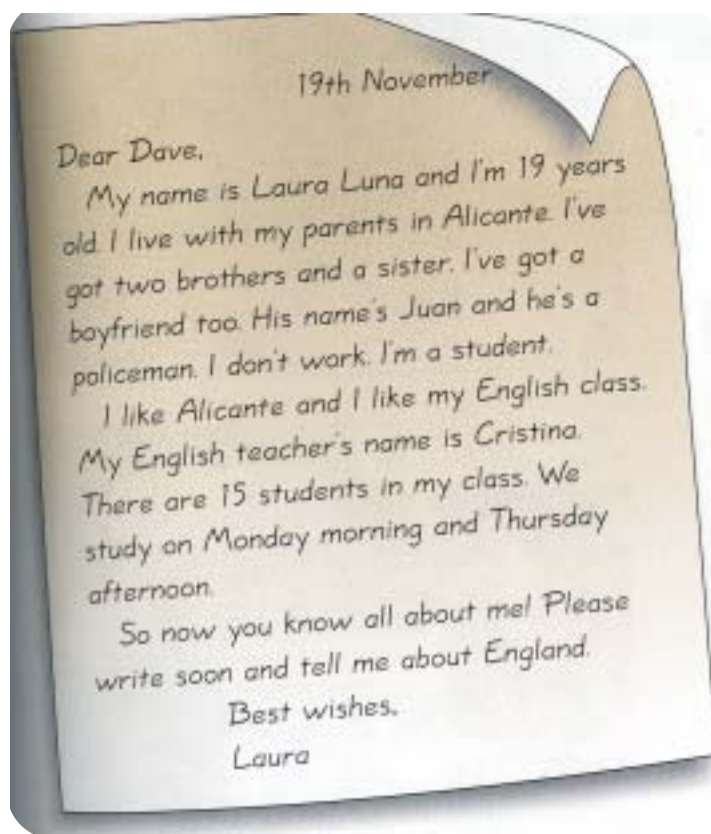

• Best wishes,
• Regards,
• Yours, (BrE)
• With best wishes from,
• Truly yours, (AmE)
• Very truly yours, (AmE)
• Kind /Kindest regards, (BrE)

Cuando el destinatario es un amigo o un pariente cercano se emplean las siguientes fórmulas:

• Love,
• Love from,
• With love from,
• Much love,
• Love from all of us,
• Love to all,
• All my love,

O, cuando el destinatario no es una persona tan allegada:

• As always, (AmE)
• Yours ever, (BrE)
• As ever, (AmE)
• Affectionately, (AmE)
• Fondly, (AmE)
• Warm / Warmest regards, (AmE)
• Fond / Fondest regards,

GRAMMAR

1.-HOW TO FORM THE GERUND (FORMACIÓN DEL GERUNDIO)

Para construir el presente y pasado continuo (tiempos verbales que se verán en la presente unidad) es necesario saber cómo se forma el gerundio:

How to form the gerund
Verbo en infinitivo sin "TO"	+	-ING

A continuación aparecen algunas de las consideraciones que hay que tener en cuenta para la formación del gerundio de determinados verbos.

a) Los verbos que terminan en consonante simplemente añaden la terminación "-ing":

Examples:

English	Spanish
eat / eating	comer / comiendo
think / thinking	pensar / pensando

b) Si el infinitivo termina en "e", se omite dicha "e" y se añade "-ing":

Examples:

English	Spanish
write / writing	escribir / escribiendo
come / coming	venir / viniendo

c) Si termina en "ie", al añadir "-ing" se cambia dicha "ie" por "y":

Examples:

English	Spanish
lie / lying	mentir / mintiendo

d) Si termina en "y" precedida de consonante, se conserva dicha "y" al añadir "-ing":

Examples:

English	Spanish
study / studying	estudiar / estudiando
fly / flying	volar / volando

e) Los verbos monosílabos (aquellos compuestos por una sola sílaba) acabados en consonante precedida de vocal corta*, duplican dicha consonante final delante de la terminación "-ing":

Examples:

English	Spanish
stop / stopping	parar / parando
put / putting	poner / poniendo
swim / swimming	nadar / nadando
drop / dropping	caerse / cayéndose

*Se entiende por vocal corta la existencia de una única vocal (stop, cut), por el contrario, nótese que "meet" también es un verbo monosilábico, sin embargo, está compuesto por dos vocales.

f) Los verbos de dos o tres sílabas que acaban en consonante + vocal + consonante, duplican dicha consonante final delante de la terminación "-ing" si el acento recae en la última sílaba.

Examples:

English	Spanish
refer / referring	referir / refiriendo
occur / occurring	ocurrir / ocurriendo

g) Los verbos terminados en "l" precedidos de vocal, duplican la "l" delante de la terminación "-ing", excepto en el inglés americano.

English	Spanish
travel / travelling	viajar / viajando
counsel / counselling	aconsejar / aconsejando

2.-PRESENT CONTINUOUS (PRESENTE CONTINUO)

2.1.-AFFIRMATIVE FORM (FORMA AFIRMATIVA)

Este tiempo verbal en inglés, al igual que en español, expresa una acción que se está desarrollando, que no está terminada. También puede indicar un futuro inmediato. La diferencia de uso entre este tiempo verbal y el presente simple es que este último se emplea para expresar un hábito, una costumbre o una verdad universal.

Present simple
English	Birds fly .
Spanish	Los pájaros vuelan .
Present continuous
English	A bird is flying over the house.
Spanish	Un pájaro está volando por encima de la casa.

La forma verbal afirmativa del presente continuo en inglés se forma de la siguiente manera:

Present continuous / Affirmative Form
SUJETO +	Verbo "TO BE" conjugado en presente (forma contraída o no contraída)	+	GERUNDIO del verbo principal + (compls.)

Examples:

English	Spanish
I am eating an apple. I'm eating an apple.	Estoy comiendo una manzana.
He is learning English. He's learning English.	Está aprendiendo inglés.
They are watching tv. They're watching tv.	Están viendo la televisión.

(FORMA NEGATIVA)

Para conjugar el presente continuo en negativa lo único que hay que hacer es conjugar en presente simple y en negativa el verbo "to be" (tal y como se ve en el punto 2 de la unidad 1).

Present continuous / Negative form
SUJETO +	Verbo TO BE conjugado en presente y en negativa (forma contraída o no contraída)	+	GERUNDIO del verbo principal + (compls.)

Examples:

English	I am not eating an apple. I'm not eating an apple.
Spanish	No estoy comiendo una manzana
English	He is not learning. He isn't learning.
Spanish	No está aprendiendo inglés.
English	They are not watching tv. They aren't watching tv.
Spanish	No están viendo la televisión.

3.-PAST CONTINUOUS (PASADO CONTINUO)

El pasado continuo en inglés se forma de la misma manera que el presente pero con el verbo auxiliar "to be" conjugado en pasado simple (tal y como se ve en el punto 3.1 de la unidad 8.)

3.1.-AFFIRMATIVE FORM (FORMA AFIRMATIVA)

La forma afirmativa del pasado continuo se construye de la siguiente manera:

Past continuous / Affirmative form
SUJETO +	Verbo "TO BE" conjugado en pasado simple	+	GERUNDIO del verbo principal + (compls.)

Examples:

English	I was eating an apple.
Spanish	Estaba comiendo una manzana.
English	He was learning English.
Spanish	Estaba aprendiendo inglés.
English	They were watching tv.
Spanish	Estaban viendo la televisión.
English	We were discussing the matter.
Spanish	Estábamos tratando el asunto.

3.2.-NEGATIVE FORM (FORMA NEGATIVA)

La forma negativa se forma de la siguiente manera:

Past continuous / Negative form
SUJETO +	Verbo TO BE conjugado en pasado simple y en negativa (forma contraída o no contraída)*	+	GERUNDIO del verbo principal + (compls.)

* La forma del pasado simple en negativa del verbo "to be" se construye de acuerdo con lo indicado en el punto 3.2. de la unidad 8.

Examples:

English	I was not eating an apple. I wasn't eating an apple.
Spanish	No estaba comiendo una manzana.
English	He was not learning English. He wasn't learning English.
Spanish	No estaba aprendiendo inglés.
English	They were not watching tv. They weren't watching tv.
Spanish	No estaban viendo la televisión.
English	We were not discussing the matter. We weren't discussing the matter.
Spanish	No estábamos tratando el asunto.

4.-PRESENT AND PAST CONTINUOUS QUESTION (FORMA INTERROGATIVA DEL PRESENTE Y PASADO CONTINUO)

Para formar oraciones interrogativas en pasado o presente continuo se siguen las reglas sintácticas que hemos visto anteriormente, es decir, se va a hacer uso de la inversión y, si es necesario, de las partículas interrogativas de las "wh questions". Sin embargo, hay que tener en cuenta que las formas continuas del verbo están compuestas por dos elementos (el verbo auxiliar "to be" conjugado y el verbo principal en gerundio) y que la construcción de las oraciones interrogativas va a variar en algunos aspectos con respecto a la de las formas simples (como el presente y el pasado simple).

4.1.-QUESTION FORM (FORMA INTERROGATIVA)

La forma interrogativa del presente y pasado continuo sigue esta estructura:

Present and past continuous / Question form
Verbo "TO BE" conjugado en pasado o presente	+	SUJETO	+
		GERUNDIO del verbo principal	+
			(compls.) ?

Examples:

English	Was I eating an apple?
Spanish	¿ Estaba comiendo una manzana?
English	Is he learning English?
Spanish	¿ Está aprendiendo inglés?
English	Were they watching tv?
Spanish	¿ Estaban viendo la televisión?
English	Are you having fun?
Spanish	¿Te lo estás pasando bien?

4.2.-NEGATIVE QUESTION FORM (FORMA INTERROGATIVO-NEGATIVA)

Para negar las oraciones interrogativas también existen dos formas posibles, la contraída y la no contraída. No obstante, la forma contraída es mucho más común en el discurso oral. Por lo tanto:

English	Wasn't I eating an apple? Was I not eating an apple?
Spanish	¿ No estaba comiendo una manzana?
English	Isn't he learning English? Is he not learning English?
Spanish	¿ No está aprendiendo inglés?
English	Weren't they watching tv? Were they not watching tv?
Spanish	¿ No estaban viendo la televisión?
English	Aren't you having fun? Are you not having fun?
Spanish	¿ No te lo estás pasando bien?

Como se puede observar en los ejemplos, no se utiliza el auxiliar "to do" para realizar la inversión de las oraciones interrogativas. Esto se debe a que el presente y pasado continuo ya tienen su propio auxiliar ("to be"), que es el que usan para la inversión.

4.3.-WH QUESTIONS WITH PRESENT AND PAST CONTINUOUS (INTERROGATIVAS PARCIALES EN PRESENTE Y PASADO CONTINUO)

Las oraciones interrogativas parciales en presente y pasado simple se construyen con partículas interrogativas como "which", "how", "who", etc. Estas oraciones interrogativas parciales con presente y pasado continuo siguen esta estructura:

Present and past continuous / Wh questions

PARTÍCULA INTERROGATIVA (what, which, who, where,...)	+	Verbo "TO BE" conjuga- do en presente o pasado	+	SUJETO	+	GERUNDIO del verbo principal	+	(compls.)?
---	---	---	---	--------	---	---------------------------------------	---	------------

La única mención que debería hacerse al respecto es que emplean como auxiliar el verbo "to be" en lugar de "to do".

Examples:

English	When was I eating?
Spanish	¿ Cuándo estaba comiendo?
English	How is he learning English?
Spanish	¿ Cómo está aprendiendo inglés?
English	Where were they watching tv?
Spanish	¿ Dónde estaban viendo la televisión?
English	Why are you having fun?
Spanish	¿ Por qué te lo estás pasando bien?
English	What am I doing?
Spanish	¿ Qué estoy haciendo?

(PREGUNTAS CON "HOW")

Como se vio en el punto 2 de la unidad 6, se pueden construir oraciones interrogativas parciales combinando "how" con los adverbios de cantidad "much" y "many" (e.g.: "How many apples did he eat?", '¿Cuántas manzanas comió?'; "How much money do you have?", '¿Cuánto dinero tienes?'). A continuación vamos a ver cómo "how" puede combinarse, además de con "much" y "many", con otros adverbios (e.g.: "often", 'a menudo'; "far", 'lejos') y con adjetivos calificativos (e.g.: "heavy", 'pesado'; "high", 'elevado'; "tall", 'alto'; "wide", 'ancho'; "long", 'largo'; "big", 'grande').

Estas oraciones interrogativas son simplemente "wh questions" (ver el punto 1.2 de la unidad 9) encabezadas por la partícula interrogativa "how" seguida de un adverbio o de un adjetivo calificativo.

Examples:

English	How far is your house from here?
Spanish	¿A cuánta distancia está tu casa de aquí? (*¿Cómo de lejos está tu casa desde aquí?)
English	How heavy is your suitcase?
Spanish	¿Cuánto pesa tu maleta? (*¿Cómo de pesada es tu maleta?)
English	How high did you jump?
Spanish	¿Hasta qué altura saltaste? (*¿Cómo de elevado saltaste?)
English	How tall are you?
Spanish	¿Cuánto mides? (*¿Cómo de alto eres?)
English	How often do you go to the cinema?
Spanish	¿Con qué frecuencia vas al cine? (*¿Cómo de a menudo vas al cine?)
English	How big were your cars?
Spanish	¿Cómo eran de grandes tus coches? (*¿Cómo de grande eran tus coches?)
English	How long do you want it?
Spanish	¿Cómo lo quieres de largo? (*¿Cómo de largo lo quieres?)
English	How big is your dog?
Spanish	¿Cómo es de grande tu perro? (*¿Cómo de grande es tu perro?)

Como se puede observar la estructura de este tipo de preguntas en inglés difiere en gran medida de la estructura usada en español; por lo tanto, aunque las traducciones literales del cuadro de ejemplos (que aparecen entre paréntesis, con letra de menor tamaño y precedidas por un asterisco) reflejen la estructura en inglés, a la hora de encontrar en nuestra lengua equivalentes para este tipo de preguntas, deberemos decantarnos por estructuras propias del español (como lo son las traducciones del cuadro de ejemplos que no aparecen entre paréntesis.)

READING COMPREHENSION

1.-CLIMATIC CHANGE (CAMBIO CLIMÁTICO)

Nowadays, people and environment are experiencing the consequences of the worst environmental problem: the climatic change. This change is mainly due to the use of fossil fuels (oil, coal and gas) and consists of a global warming.

People are changing the climate, and the results are disastrous, there are extreme weather events: droughts and floods, disruption of water supplies, melting Polar regions, rising sea levels, loss of coral reefs and much more.

Scientists and governments worldwide agree on the latest and starkest evidence of human-induced climate change, its impacts and the predictions for the future.

But it is not too late to slow down global warming and to avoid the climate catastrophe, the solutions exist. Renewable energy sources (wind energy, solar energy,...) offer abundant clean energy that is safe for the environment and good for the economy. Corporations and governments should invest in renewable energies, particularly in developing economies. Clean energies should replace fossil fuel developments.

GRAMMAR

1.-FUTURE TENSE (EL TIEMPO FUTURO)

1.1.-AFFIRMATIVE FORM (FORMA AFIRMATIVA)

En inglés el futuro de los verbos se forma anteponiendo el auxiliar “will” al verbo en infinitivo sin la partícula “to”. Esta forma (“will”) se puede contraer en “’ll”. Para la primera persona del plural y del singular también se puede utilizar el auxiliar “shall”. Por lo tanto:

TO BE ('ser; estar')
Future / Affirmative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I will be I' ll be I shall be	(yo) seré; estaré
2 nd S	you will be you' ll be	(tú) serás; estarás
		(usted) será; estará
3 rd S	he/ she/ it will be he' ll / she' ll / it' ll be	(él/ ella/ *ello) será; estará
1 st P	we will be we' ll be we shall be	(nosotros/ as) seremos; estaremos
2 nd P	you will be you' ll be	(vosotros/ as) seréis; estaréis
		(ustedes) serán; estarán
3 rd P	they will be they' ll be	(ellos/ as) serán; estarán

1.2-NEGATIVE FORM AND QUESTION FORM (FORMA NEGATIVA E INTERROGATIVA)

Existen dos maneras posibles para construir la forma negativa: (1) intercalando el adverbio de negación “not” entre el auxiliar (“will”) y el verbo principal en infinitivo sin la partícula “to”; o (2) con la forma contraída (“won't”) de la suma del auxiliar y de la partícula de negación. La forma interrogativa se obtiene invirtiendo el orden del sujeto y del auxiliar. Por lo tanto:

Future / Negative and contracted negative form
SUJETO	+ WILL NOT / WON'T	+ Verbo principal en INFINITIVO sin "TO"

Future / Question form
WILL + SUJETO	+ Verbo principal en INFINITIVO sin "TO"	+ (complementos)?

3 rd P	they will not be they won't be	(ellos/ as) no serán; no estarán	3 rd P	will they be?	¿serán; estarán (ellos/ as)?

1.3.-NEGATIVE QUESTION

(FORMA INTERROGATIVO-NEGATIVA)

Para construir oraciones interrogativo-negativas en futuro tenemos dos opciones: (1) hacer uso de la forma negativa contraída ("won't") que es más común a nivel oral; (2) o hacer uso de la forma negativa no contraída ("will not").

Future / Contracted negative question form
WON'T + SUJETO +	Verbo principal en INFINITIVO sin "TO" + (complementos) ?

Future / Negative question form
WILL + SUJETO + NOT +	Verbo en INFINITIVO + (compts.) ? sin "TO"

TO BE ('ser; estar')

2 nd S	will you not be? won't you be?	¿no serás; no estarás (tú)? ¿no será; no estará (usted)?

1 st P	will we not be? won't we be?	¿no seremos; no estaremos (nosotros/ as)?
2 nd P	will you not be? won't you be?	¿no seréis; no estaréis (vosotros/ as)? ¿no serán; no estarán (ustedes)?
3 rd P	will they not be? won't they be?	¿no serán, no estarán (ellos/ as)?

(FUTURO PRÓXIMO)

En inglés también se puede expresar futuro con la partícula "going to", precedida del verbo "to be" (conjugado en pasado o en presente) y seguida del verbo en infinitivo sin "to". Por lo tanto:

Future with "going to"
SUJETO +	Verbo "TO BE" conjugado en pasado o en presente + "GOING TO" + Verbo principal en INFINITIVO sin "TO"

Este futuro expresa proximidad, es decir, que la acción que se va a realizar (o que se realizó) se encuentra (o se encontraba) próxima a un momento determinado en el tiempo, en caso de usar el verbo "to be" en presente, la acción que se va a llevar a cabo está cercana al momento presente, y en caso de usar el verbo "to be" en pasado la acción que se va a llevar a cabo está cercana a un momento pasado.

Examples:

English	I am not going to eat at home.
Spanish	No voy a comer en casa.
English	He is going to read a book.
Spanish	Va a leer un libro.
English	They are going to drink some water.
Spanish	Van a beber agua.
English	He was going to play the piano.
Spanish	Iba a tocar el piano.
English	They were not going to study the lesson.
Spanish	No iban a estudiar la lección.
English	I was going to go to Ireland.
Spanish	Iba a ir a Irlanda.

1.5- DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE FUTURE WITH "GOING TO" AND THE SIMPLE

(DIFERENCIAS DE USO ENTRE EL FUTURO CON "GOING TO" Y EL FUTURO SIMPLE)

La diferencia de uso entre el futuro próximo y el futuro con "will" radica en la intención del hablante. Por lo tanto, se usará "will" cuando uno se ofrezca como voluntario para hacer algo o cuando se haya tomado una decisión; asimismo, se hará uso del futuro con "going to" a la hora de referirse a algo que ya está planeado y organizado de antemano.

Examples:

English	I am going to meet some friends at the café.
Spanish	Voy encontrarme con unos amigos en la cafetería [es un hecho que ya está planeado]
English	I will call you as soon as I arrive in Dublin.
Spanish	Te llamaré en cuanto llegue a Dublín. [he tomado la decisión de llamarte y lo haré]

2.-FIRST TYPE CONDITIONAL SENTENCES (ORACIONES CONDICIONALES DE PRIMER TIPO)

Las oraciones condicionales de primer tipo siguen esta estructura:

First type conditional sentences
Partícula "IF"	+	Oración en PRESENTE SIMPLE + Oración en FUTURO SIMPLE

If I go to London [Presente Simple] + it will rain [Futuro simple]

Examples:

English	If I go it will rain .
Spanish	Si voy lloverá .
English	If you drink too much you will get drunk.
Spanish	Si bebes demasiado te emborracharás .
English	If he plays they will win .
Spanish	Si juega ganarán .

3.-PRESENT PERFECT (PRETÉRITO PERFECTO COMPUESTO)

El pretérito perfecto compuesto se forma con el verbo "to have" conjugado en presente (para la tercera persona del singular "has" o su contracción "s"; para el resto de las personas "have" o su contracción "ve") y el verbo principal en participio pasado. Por lo tanto:

Present perfect / Affirmative form
SUJETO	+	Verbo "TO HAVE" conjugado en presente + PARTICIPIO PASADO del verbo principal

TO WALK ('andar')
Present perfect / Affirmative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I have walked I 've walked	(yo) he caminado
2 nd S	you have walked you 've walked	(tú) has caminado (usted) ha caminado
3 rd S	he/she/it has walked he/she/it 's walked	(él/ ella/ *ello) ha caminado
1 st P	we have walked we 've walked	(nosotros/ as) hemos caminado
2 nd P	you have walked you 've walked	(vosotros/ as) habéis caminado (ustedes) han caminado
3 rd P	they have walked they 've walked	(ellos / as) han caminado

El pretérito perfecto compuesto expresa:

- 1) Una acción finalizada en el momento en el que se está comunicando y relacionada de alguna manera con el momento presente.
- 2) Una acción que todavía continúa en el momento presente, pero relacionada con una forma adverbial anterior.
- 3) Una acción que tuvo lugar en el pasado, sin referencia a un tiempo concreto.

English	1	I have seen your car on my way here.
Spanish		He visto tu coche de camino aquí.
English	2	I have been in Wales since last week.
Spanish		Desde la semana pasada he estado en Gales.
English		I have had this pen for a month.
Spanish		He tenido esta pluma desde hace un mes.
English	3	I have played that song.
Spanish		He tocado esa canción.

La forma interrogativa se obtiene invirtiendo el orden del sujeto y auxiliar ("Have I walked?", '¿He andado?'). La forma negativa se consigue intercalando el adverbio de negación "not" entre el auxiliar y el participio ("I have not walked", 'No he andado'). Nótese que también se puede abreviar ésta en "haven't", y en "hasn't" para la tercera persona del singular.

TO WALK (andar)
Present perfect / Negative form and contracted negative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I have not walked I haven't walked	(yo) no he caminado
2 nd S	you have not walked you haven't walked	(tú) no has caminado (usted) no ha caminado
3 rd S	he/ she/ it has not walked he/ she/ it hasn't walked	(él/ ella/ *ello) no ha caminado
1 st P	we have not walked we haven't walked	(nosotros/ as) no hemos caminado
2 nd P	you have not walked you haven't walked	(vosotros/ as) no habéis caminado (ustedes) no han caminado
3 rd P	they have not walked they haven't walked	(ellos/ as) no han caminado

TO WALK (andar)
Present perfect / Question form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	have I walked?	¿he caminado (yo)?
2 nd S	have you walked?	¿has caminado (tú)?
		¿ha caminado (usted)?
3 rd S	has he/ she/ it walked?	¿ha caminado (él/ ella/ ello*)?
1 st P	have we walked?	¿hemos caminado (nosotros/ as)?
2 nd P	have you walked?	¿habéis caminado (vosotros/ as)?
		¿han caminado (ustedes)?
3 rd P	have they walked?	¿han caminado (ellos/ as)?

TO WALK ('andar')
Present perfect / Contracted negative question form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	haven't I walked?	¿no he caminado (yo)?
2 nd S	haven't you walked?	¿no has caminado (tú)?
		¿no ha caminado (usted)?
3 rd S	hasn't he/ she/ it walked?	¿no ha caminado (él/ ella/ *ello)?
1 st P	haven't we walked?	¿no hemos caminado (nosotros/ as)?
2 nd P	haven't you walked?	¿no habéis caminado (vosotros/ as)?
		¿no han caminado (ustedes)?
3 rd P	haven't they walked?	¿no han caminado (ellos/ as)?

Para obtener la interrogativa negativa (no contraída), que es menos común en el discurso hablado que la contraída, se sigue este orden:

Present perfect / Negative question
Verbo "TO HAVE" + SUJETO + NOT + en presente	PARTICIPIO PASADO del verbo principal + (compts.) ?

Por lo tanto:

TO WALK ('andar')
Present perfect / Negative question form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	Have I not walked?	¿No he caminado (yo)?
2 nd S	Have you not walked?	¿No has caminado (tú)?
		¿No ha caminado (usted)?
3 rd S	Has he/she/it not walked?	¿No ha caminado (él/ ella/ ello*)?
1 st P	Have we not walked?	¿No hemos caminado (nosotros/ as)?
2 nd P	Have you not walked?	¿No habéis caminado (vosotros/ as)?
		¿No han caminado (ustedes)?
3 rd P	Have they not walked?	¿No han caminado (ellos/ as)?

Por el contrario, el pasado simple hace referencia a una acción que ocurrió en el pasado y que excluye toda relación con el tiempo actual.

Examples:

English	I went to England last summer.
Spanish	Fui a Inglaterra el verano pasado.
English	He drank too much wine.
Spanish	Bebió demasiado vino.

4.-USE OF "SINCE" AND "FOR"

(USO DE "SINCE" Y "FOR")

Las preposiciones inglesas "since" y "for" significan 'desde', 'desde hace' y 'durante'.

La diferencia de uso entre "since" y "for" radica en que "since" se emplea cuando se hace referencia a un momento concreto, es decir, "since" precede a una expresión temporal que hace referencia a un momento concreto en el pasado (e.g.: "my birthday", "1976", "I saw you", "last week", etc.).

"For" se emplea cuando se hace referencia a un periodo de tiempo, es decir, "for" precede a una expresión temporal que hace referencia un periodo de tiempo y no a un momento concreto (e.g.: "five days", "one year", "a moment", etc.).

English	Peter hasn't talked to me for one week .
Spanish	Peter no me ha hablado durante una semana .
English	Peter hasn't talked to me since last summer .
Spanish	Peter no me habla desde el verano pasado .
English	I had a very bad pain in my chest for seven months .
Spanish	Tuve un dolor muy fuerte en el pecho durante siete meses .
English	I haven't had any pain in my chest since January .
Spanish	No he tenido ningún dolor en el pecho desde enero .
English	This is the first time I meet Anne since last year .
Spanish	Esta es la primera vez que me encuentro con Anne desde el año pasado .
English	This is the first time I meet Anne for two months .
Spanish	Esta es la primera vez que me encuentro con Anne desde hace dos meses .

1.-THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND (EL REINO UNIDO DE GRAN BRETAÑA E IRLANDA DEL NORTE)

The United Kingdom is situated in the north-west coast of Europe across the English Channel. It consists of two large islands (Great Britain and Northern Ireland) and about 5000 smaller ones. Its neighbours are Ireland to west and France to south-east.

The United Kingdom consists of four nations: England (London capital), Scotland (Edinburgh capital), Wales (Cardiff capital) and Northern Ireland (Belfast capital). Each of these nations has a very distinct identity and you should not call a Welshman "English" and vice versa.

Great Britain is often incorrectly used to refer to the United Kingdom. It is the largest of the British Isles, an archipelago that also includes Ireland (Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland), the Faroe Islands (Denmark) and the Isle of Man. This means that Northern Ireland belongs to the United Kingdom but not to Great Britain. The Isle of Man is an internally self-governing dependency of the British Crown and its people are British citizens. Great Britain includes the main island (Wales, Scotland, England) and some islands such as Anglesey, the Isle of Wight, the Hebrides, the Orkney Islands and the Shetland Islands.

England is the largest and the most densely populated of the nations that make up the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The name "England" is derived from "land of the Angles". It is often incorrectly used as a synonym for Great Britain or the United Kingdom, which is inaccurate and can be offensive.

GRAMMAR

1. THE CONDITIONAL TENSE (EL TIEMPO CONDICIONAL)

1.1. AFFIRMATIVE FORM (FORMA AFIRMATIVA)

La forma condicional afirmativa del verbo en inglés se obtiene de manera muy parecida a como se construye la del futuro simple:

Conditional / Affirmative form
SUJETO	+	WOULD + verbo en INFINITIVO sin "TO"

El auxiliar "would" es invariable para todas las personas, es decir, no tiene una forma "especial" para la tercera persona del singular como ocurre, por ejemplo, en el presente simple. La forma "would" se puede contraer en "d".

Examples:

English	I would give you my car.
Spanish	Te daría mi coche.
English	You'd take a taxi.
Spanish	Cogerías un taxi.
English	We would like to go to France.
Spanish	Nos gustaría ir a Francia.
English	They'd meet my mother.
Spanish	Conocerían a mi madre.
English	She would read this book.
Spanish	Leería este libro.

1.2. NEGATIVE FORM (FORMA NEGATIVA)

La forma negativa del condicional en inglés se construye con la forma "would not" o su contracción "wouldn't" más el infinitivo del verbo que se desea poner en condicional sin la preposición "to".

Conditional / Negative form
SUJETO	+	WOULD NOT/ WOULDN'T + Verbo en INFINITIVO sin "TO"

Conditional / Affirmative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I would walk I'd walk	(yo) andaría
2 nd S	you would walk you'd walk	(tú) andarías
		(usted) andaría
3 rd S	he/ she/ it would walk he'd/ she'd/ it'd walk	(él /ella/ *ello) andaría
1 st P	we would walk we'd walk	(nosotros/ as) andaríamos
2 nd P	you would walk you'd walk	(vosotros/ as) andaríais
		(ustedes) andarían
3 rd P	they would walk they'd walk	(ellos /as) andarían

Conditional / Negative form
	English	Spanish
1 st S	I would not walk I wouldn't walk	(yo) no andaría
2 nd S	you would not walk you wouldn't walk	(tú) no andarías
		(usted) no andaría
3 rd S	he/ she/ it would not walk he/ she/ it wouldn't walk	(él /ella/ *ello) no andaría
1 st P	we would not walk we wouldn't walk	(nosotros/ as) no andaríamos
2 nd P	you would not walk you wouldn't walk	(vosotros/ as) no andaríais
		(ustedes) no andarían
3 rd P	they would not walk they wouldn't walk	(ellos/ as) no andarían

1.3.-QUESTION FORM (FORMA INTERROGATIVA)

Para construir oraciones interrogativas en tiempo condicional en inglés no se emplea el auxiliar "to do", sino que se hace uso de "would", cuya forma es invariable para todas las personas.

Conditional / Question form
WOULD + SUJETO +	Verbo en INFINITIVO + (compls.) ? sin "TO"

Conditional / Question
	English	Spanish
1 st S	would I walk?	¿andaría (yo)?
2 nd S	would you walk?	¿andarías (tú)?
		¿andaría (usted)?
3 rd S	would he/ she/ it walk?	¿andaría (él/ ella /ello)?
1 st P	would we walk?	¿andaríamos (nosotros/ as)?
2 nd P	would you walk?	¿andaríais (vosotros/ as)?
		¿andarían (ustedes)?
3 rd P	would they walk?	¿andarían (ellos/ as)?

1.4. NEGATIVE QUESTION FORM (FORMA INTERROGATIVO-NEGATIVA)

Para construir oraciones interrogativo-negativas en condicional tenemos dos opciones: (1) hacer uso de la forma negativa contraída ("wouldn't") que suele ser lo más común, o (2) hacer uso de la forma negativa no contraída ("would not").

Conditional / Contracted negative question form
WOULDN'T + SUJETO +	Verbo en INFINITIVO + (compls.) ? sin "TO"

Conditional / Negative question form
WOULDN'T + SUJETO +	Verbo en INFINITIVO (compls.) ? sin "TO"

Examples:

English	Wouldn't you lend me your car? Would you not lend me your car?
Spanish	¿ No me dejarías tu coche?
English	Wouldn't they go to England? Would they not go to England?
Spanish	¿ No irían a Inglaterra?

2. THE IMPERATIVE (EL IMPERATIVO)

El imperativo en inglés se construye simplemente con la forma de infinitivo del verbo sin la partícula "to" y, a diferencia de otras formas verbales que necesitan el pronombre personal explícito ("I eat"; "you would like"; "they have seen", etc.), el imperativo en inglés no lo requiere. En inglés se emplea esta única forma para la segunda persona del singular y del plural ("you", 'tú', 'vosotros', 'usted', 'ustedes') cuando en español se necesitan cuatro formas distintas:

Examples:

English	Spanish
Do it	Hazlo (tú) / Hacedlo (vosotros/ as)
	Hágalo (usted) / Háganlo (ustedes)
Eat	Come (tú) / Comed (vosotros/ as)
	Coma (usted) / Coman (ustedes)
Study	Estudia (tú) / Estudiad (vosotros/ as)
	Estudie (usted) / Estudien (ustedes)
Come	Ven (tú) / Venid (vosotros/ as)
	Venga (usted) / Vengan (ustedes)

Para la forma negativa del imperativo se emplea el auxiliar “do do” en su forma negativa: “do not”, que se emplea en contextos formales, y “don’t”, que se emplea en contextos más informales:

Examples:

English	Do not do it
Spanish	No lo hagas (tú) / No lo hagáis (vosotros)
	No lo haga (usted) / No lo hagan (ustedes)
English	Don’t be a fool
Spanish	No seas (tú) tonto / No seáis (vosotros) tontos
	No sea (usted) tonto / No sean (ustedes) tontos

El auxiliar “do” también se emplea en la forma afirmativa del imperativo cuando se quiere enfatizar la orden:

Examples:

English	Do eat
Spanish	Come (tú) / Comed (vosotros)
	Coma (usted) / Coman (ustedes)
English	Do study this lesson
Spanish	Estudia (tú) / Estudiad (vosotros) esta lección
	Estudie (usted) / Estudien (ustedes) esta lección

Para formular órdenes o sugerencias que, además de a otras personas, incluyan al propio hablante, en inglés se utilizan los “let’s commands”. Se forman de la siguiente manera:

Let’s commands / Affirmative form
LET’S	+	Verbo en INFINITIVO sin “ TO ”	+	(compls.) ?

La forma negativa de este tipo de construcciones imperativas sería la siguiente:

Let’s commands / Negative form
LET’S	+	NOT	+	Verbo en INFINITIVO sin “ TO ” + (compls.) ?

Examples:

English	Let’s eat pizza.
Spanish	Comamos pizza.
English	Let’s not go to the store.
Spanish	No vayamos a la tienda.

1.-TERRORIST ATTACK (ATAQUE TERRORISTA)

Because of the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon in 2001, there are many people concerned about the possibility of future incidents and their potential impact. As a result of this kind of devastating acts there is a great uncertainty about the future and stress levels are increasing. Nevertheless, there are things you can do to prepare for the unexpected and to reduce the stress. For example, you can create an emergency communications plan, you can establish a meeting place, you can assemble a disaster supplies kit or check on the school emergency plan of any school-age children you may have. And in the event that disaster strikes, you have to:

- remain calm and be patient;
- follow the advice of local emergency officials;
- listen to your radio or television for news and instructions;
- if the disaster occurs near you, check for injuries; give first aid and get help for seriously injured people;
- if the disaster occurs near your home and you are there, check for damage using a flashlight; do not light matches or candles or turn on electrical switches; check for fires, fire hazards and other household hazards; sniff for gas leaks, starting at the water heater; and, if you smell gas or suspect a leak, turn off the main gas valve, open windows, and get everyone outside quickly;

GRAMMAR

1. MODAL VERBS
 (VERBOS MODALES)

Los verbos modales son un conjunto de verbos anómalos que poseen una serie de características comunes:

a) Tienen la misma forma verbal invariable para todas las personas, excepto "have (got) to", que tiene "has" en la tercera persona del singular.

Examples:

English	He can sing.
Spanish	Puede cantar.
English	She has to sing.
Spanish	Tiene que cantar.

b) En las oraciones interrogativas se invierte el orden del sujeto y del verbo modal, mientras que en los verbos no modales se usa el auxiliar "to do" (las oraciones interrogativas con verbos modales se construyen de una forma similar a como se construyen las oraciones con el verbo "to be", tal y como se explica en la unidad 1).

Aquellos modales que aceptan la forma negativa contraída tienen dos maneras para formar oraciones interrogativas:

Modal verbs / Negative question form
Verbo modal + SUJETO + NOT	$\left[\begin{array}{c} \text{Verbo en infinitivo sin "TO"} \\ + \text{(compls.)} \end{array} \right] ?$

Modal verbs / Contracted negative question form
Verbo modal en negativa contraído + SUJETO	$\left[\begin{array}{c} \text{Verbo en infinitivo sin "TO"} \\ + \text{(compls.)} \end{array} \right] ?$

En las oraciones negativas la partícula negativa "not" va siempre detrás del verbo.

Examples:

English	Can he? Could he?
Spanish	¿Puede? ¿Pudo / podría?
English	He cannot (can't) . He could not (couldn't) .
Spanish	No puede. No pudo / no podría.
English	Couldn't she speak louder? Could she not speak louder?
Spanish	¿ No podría hablar más alto?

Nótese que "cannot", a diferencia del resto de los verbos modales, va todo junto en la forma negativa.

c) Cuando acompañan a un verbo en infinitivo, siempre lo preceden en las oraciones afirmativas y negativas.

Examples:

English	He can write.
Spanish	Puede escribir.
English	He might do it later.
Spanish	Puede que lo haga más tarde.
English	You shouldn't take it so seriously.
Spanish	No deberías tomártelo tan a pecho.

d) Cuando el verbo modal acompaña a un verbo en infinitivo, dicho infinitivo aparece sin la partícula "to", salvo con los verbos modales "ought to" y "have to"

Examples:

English	He can write .
Spanish	Puede escribir .
English	He could do it better.
Spanish	Lo podría / lo pudo hacer mejor.
English	She has to go to Hannover.
Spanish	Tiene que ir a Hannover.

1.1.-CAN

El verbo modal “can” significa ‘poder’, ‘tener la capacidad o la habilidad para llevar a cabo una acción’. También se puede utilizar para expresar permiso, posibilidad, imposibilidad o petición. La forma negativa de “can” (“cannot” o “can’t”) expresa deducción. Las formas “can”, “cannot” y “can’t” sólo se utilizan en presente.

La perífrasis verbal “to be able to” se usa para expresar capacidad en los tiempos verbales en los que “can” no puede conjugarse, por ejemplo, en futuro o pasado. Por lo tanto, la forma negativa hará referencia a la falta de capacidad. No obstante, “to be able to” puede conjugarse en todos los tiempos que hasta el momento hemos visto en este libro:

Can
English		Spanish
Ability:	He can write.	Capacidad:	Puede escribir.
Permission:	Can I go with you?	Permiso:	¿ Puedo ir contigo?
Possibility/Impossibility:	Albert can become rich and famous if he knows the right people.	Posibilidad/Imposibilidad:	Alberto puede hacerse rico y famoso si conoce a la gente adecuada.
Request:	Can I have a glass of water?	Petición:	¿ Puedo tomarme un vaso de agua?
Deduction:	They cannot (can’t) be at home. The lights are off.	Deducción:	No pueden estar en casa. Las luces están apagadas.

to be able to
English		Spanish
Ability in the future:	I will be able to speak English.	Capacidad en futuro:	Podré hablar inglés.
Inability in the future:	I will not (won’t) be able to come tomorrow.	Incapacidad en futuro:	No podré venir mañana.
Ability in the past:	He was able to read a whole book in one day.	Capacidad en pasado:	Pudo leer un libro entero en un solo día.

1.2.-COULD

“Could” expresa habilidad en el pasado; con la forma negativa, imposibilidad en el pasado. También se puede usar para hacer sugerencias, especulaciones (como “might”), para pedir algo educadamente o para expresar críticas. “Could” se refiere tanto al tiempo pasado (‘pude’) como al condicional (‘podría’).

Could
English		Spanish
Skill in the past:	My father could speak French when he was ten years old.	Habilidad en pasado:	Mi padre podía hablar francés cuando tenía diez años.
Polite request:	Could you repeat that again, please?	Solicitar algo educadamente:	¿ Podría repetir eso de nuevo, por favor?
Impossibility in the past:	I was so nervous I could not (couldn’t) remember anything.	Imposibilidad en pasado:	Estaba tan nervioso que no pude recordar nada.
Suggestion:	We could go to the cinema.	Sugerencia:	Podríamos ir al cine.
Criticism:	You could have told me the truth.	Crítica:	Podrías haberme dicho la verdad.

1.3.-MUST

El verbo “must” expresa obligación ineludible de hacer algo. Asimismo, puede expresar deducción de un hecho, prohibición (en su forma negativa) o una sugerencia.

Ya que “must” es un verbo defectivo y no puede conjugarse en determinados tiempos verbales (e.g., pasado, futuro, etc.); nos vemos obligados a utilizar “have to” en el tiempo oportuno para expresar este tipo de obligación. Por lo tanto, la forma negativa de “have to” expresará esa ausencia de obligación. Nótese que, “must” implica un mayor grado de obligación que “have to”. Asimismo, “have to” también podrá utilizarse en tiempo presente con ese mismo matiz de obligación.

“Have to” no es un verbo modal propiamente dicho ya que no posee la mayoría de las características de los verbos modales expuestas anteriormente. Esto quiere decir que, se comporta como el resto de los verbos a la hora de hacer preguntas o a la hora de negar (con el auxiliar “to do”). Además, para la tercera persona del singular ha de emplearse la forma “has”. Veamos algunos ejemplos:

Must
English		Spanish
Obligation	They must study to pass the exam. Must they study to pass the exam?	Obligación	Deben estudiar para aprobar el examen. ¿ Deben estudiar para aprobar el examen?
Deduction	The rumour must be true.	Deducción:	El rumor debe de ser verdad.
Prohibition:	You must not (mustn't) come back late	Prohibición:	No debes volver tarde.
Suggestion:	You must see the British Museum! It's wonderful!	Sugerencia:	¡ Deberías ver el Museo Británico! ¡Es maravilloso!

Have to
English		Spanish
Obligation in the present:	I have to go to class. I must go to class.	Obligación en presente:	Tengo que ir a clase. Debo ir a clase.
Obligation in the past:	They had to study.	Obligación en pasado:	Tuvieron / tenían que estudiar
Lack of obligation in the past:	She did not (didn't) have to study.	Ausencia de obligación en pasado:	No tuvo / tenía que estudiar.
Obligation in the future:	He will have to go to London.	Obligación en futuro:	Tendrá que ir a Londres.
Lack of obligation in the future:	I will not (won't) have to come soon.	Ausencia de obligación en futuro:	No tendré que volver temprano.

Examples:

English	Do you have to wear a uniform?
Spanish	¿ Tienes que llevar uniforme?
English	Did she have to bring an umbrella?
Spanish	¿ Tuvo que llevar paraguas?
English	You don't have to read the whole book.
Spanish	No tienes que leer todo el libro.
English	She doesn't have to drive.
Spanish	No tiene que conducir.

1.4.-NEED

El verbo “need” expresa necesidad. “Need” es un verbo semi-modal, esto significa que puede comportarse como modal o no, es decir, que puede adquirir (o no) las propiedades estructurales de los verbos modales.

Examples:

English	They need not (needn't) take it unless they want to.
Spanish	No necesitan cogerlo a no ser que quieran.
English	They don't need to take it unless they want to.
Spanish	No necesitan cogerlo a no ser que quieran.
English	Need you go?
Spanish	¿ Necesitas irte?
English	Do you need to go?
Spanish	¿ Necesitas irte?
English	Need he go so soon?
Spanish	¿ Necesita irse tan temprano?
English	Does he need to go so soon?
Spanish	¿ Necesita irse tan temprano?
English	I need to study harder.
Spanish	Necesito estudiar más duro.
English	She needs to be loved.
Spanish	Necesita ser amada.

Nótese que el verbo “need” se comporta como modal en las tablas sombreadas en amarillo. Esto quiere decir que para la forma negativa, se intercala la partícula de negación “not” entre “need” y el verbo en infinitivo sin la partícula “to” (también puede contraerse en “needn’t”), mientras que para la forma negativa no modal, se antepone la partícula “don’t” al verbo “need”, seguida del verbo en infinitivo con la partícula “to”. Para la forma interrogativa se invierte el orden del sujeto y del verbo modal, mientras que para la forma interrogativa no modal de hace uso del auxiliar “to do” como se ha explicado en unidades anteriores.

1.5.-MAY

El modal “may” expresa permiso y posibilidad. También es utilizado para hacer especulaciones. Por lo tanto:

Nótese que la forma negativa de “may” no se abrevia.

May
English		Spanish
Permission:	May I go?	Permiso:	¿Puedo ir?
Possibility	It may rain tomorrow.	Posibilidad:	Es posible que llueva mañana.
Speculation:	That may be the man who won the lottery.	Especulación:	Puede que ése sea el hombre al que le tocó la lotería.

La forma “might not” no se contrae.

Speculation:	Might she be the winner? They might come into the house through an open window.	Especulación:	¿ Puede que sea la ganadora? Puede que entren en la casa a través de una ventana abierta.

1.7 SHOULD / OUGHT TO

Los verbos modales “should” y “ought to” pueden: expresar obligación moral, servir para dar consejos, así como para criticar acciones pasadas. La forma negativa contraída de “should not” es “shouldn’t”. Por lo tanto:

*Nótese que para criticar acciones pasadas el verbo principal debe ir en infinitivo compuesto (have + participio de pasado) o en infinitivo simple.

Should / Ought to
English		Spanish
Moral obligation:	I should read more. I ought to read more.	Obligación moral:	Debería leer más.
	Should I read more? Ought I to read more?		Debería leer más?

1.-DAVID BOWIE

David Robert Jones was born on 8th January, 1947, in London (England, United Kingdom). David Jones started playing the saxophone at the age of 13, and he left Bromley Technical High School (where a friend paralyzed David's left pupil in a fight) to work as a commercial artist three years later.

In 1966, he changed his name to David Bowie to avoid confusion with the Monkees' Davy Jones.

He married the American-born Angela Barnett on 20th March, 1970. They had a son in June 1971. The couple divorced in 1980.

Bowie's tribute to the New York City of Andy Warhol, the Velvet Underground and Bob Dylan, included his theme song "Changes".

He produced albums for Lou Reed ("Transformer" and its hit "Walk on the wild side") and wrote and produced Mott the Hoople's anthem "All the Young Dudes".

Bowie revitalized Iggy Pop's career by producing "The Idiot" and "Lust for life" (both in 1977).

Bowie had no luck in his acting career: "Into the Night" (1985), "Absolute Beginners" (1986); "Labyrinth" (1986), "The Linguini Incident" (1992) and "Twin Peaks". None of these films were commercial successes.

In 1992 Bowie married Somalian supermodel Iman. His wedding present to his wife was an album called "Black Tie White Noise", which received positive reviews.

GRAMMAR

1.-PASSIVE VOICE (VOZ PASIVA)

La formación de la oración pasiva en inglés es similar a la del español, es decir, en la oración pasiva la persona o cosa que recibe la acción del verbo en la oración activa pasa a ser el sujeto paciente del verbo pasivo (e.g.: “María ve un árbol” / “Un árbol es visto por María”), mientras que el sujeto de la oración activa pasa a ser el complemento agente de la oración pasiva (“María ve un árbol” / “Un árbol es visto por María”). La forma verbal de la voz pasiva se construye de la siguiente manera:

- se utiliza el verbo “to be” (acepción ‘ser’) como verbo auxiliar, conjugado en la persona, el número y tiempo oportunos;
- el auxiliar va acompañado por el participio pasado del verbo principal.

Spanish	La joya iba ser robada.
English	Was the jewel going to be stolen ?
Spanish	¿ Iba a ser robada la joya?

En inglés, el uso de la voz pasiva es mucho más frecuente que en español. Por ejemplo, la voz pasiva se emplea en inglés para construir cierto tipo de oraciones impersonales cuando en español no se utiliza este modo, sino que se emplean estructuras con la forma impersonal “se”:

Examples:

English	It is said that she is a teacher.
Spanish	Se dice que (ella) es profesora.
English	He is often seen with your sister.
Spanish	Se le ve (a él) a menudo con tu hermana.
English	It is believed that she needs a doctor.
Spanish	Se cree que (ella) necesita un médico.

En inglés (a diferencia de lo que ocurre en español que sólo el objeto directo [DO] puede ser el sujeto paciente de la oración pasiva) el objeto indirecto [IO] en cierto tipo de oraciones también puede ser el sujeto paciente de la voz pasiva:

Active voice:

Michael gave a book to the boys for their birthdays.
[subject] [verb] [DO] [IO] [complement]

(1) Passive voice (subject: DO):

A book was given to the boys for their birthdays by Michel.

(2) Passive voice (subject: IO):

The boys were given a book for their birthdays by Michel.

Nótese que el verbo auxiliar “to be” siempre concordará con el sujeto paciente, así en (1) adopta la forma “was” (ya que el sujeto paciente es singular, “a book”), mientras que en (2) adopta la forma “were” (ya que el sujeto paciente es plural, “the boys”).

A la hora de transformar una oración activa en la que la función de sujeto está siendo ejercida por un pronombre personal (“I”, “you”, “he”, “she”, “it”, “we” o “they”), hay que tener en cuenta que este sujeto activo será el complemento agente de la oración pasiva y que las formas anteriormente mencionadas (“I”, “you”, “he”, “she”, “it”, etc.) se convertirán en “me”, “you”, “him”, “her”, “it”, “us” y “them”, respectivamente.

Active voice
	Subject	Verb	Complements
(1)	He	saw	Michael
(2)	They	bring	some friends
(3)	She	has bought	your books
(4)	We	will send	a letter

Passive voice
	Subject	Verb	Agent
(1)	Michael	was seen	by him
(2)	Some friends	are brought	by them
(3)	Your books	have been bought	by her
(4)	A letter	will be sent	by us

Existe la posibilidad de que en las oraciones pasivas no aparezca el complemento agente, bien porque no se sepa quién o qué es, bien porque resulte irrelevante. Cuando el sujeto de la oración activa es “they”, en la oración pasiva se suele omitir el complemento agente (“by them”).

		Subject	Verb	Complements
English	Active voice	They	cut	a tree
Spanish		Ellos	cortaron	un árbol
English	Passive voice	A tree	was cut	(by them)
Spanish		Un árbol	fue cortado	(por ellos)

En inglés la estructura gramatical para expresar que a alguien le duele algo difiere bastante de la que se emplea en español. En inglés se pueden utilizar dos verbos, "to hurt" y "to ache". Cuando la oración está en presente simple y se quiere decir que duele una parte del cuerpo ("leg", "pierna"; "arm", "brazo"; "foot", "pie"; etc.) estos verbos se conjugan en tercera persona del singular (hay que añadirles -s); pero cuando lo que duelen son varias partes del cuerpo ("legs", "piernas"; "arms", "brazos"; "feet", "pies"; etc.) los verbos anteriormente mencionados se conjugan en tercera persona del plural (no hay que añadirles -s).

English	my (part of the body) hurts my (part of the body) aches
Spanish	me duele el/la...
English	my (parts of the body) hurt my (parts of the body) ache
Spanish	me duelen los/las...

English	Spanish
His leg hurts. His leg aches.	Le duele (a él) la pierna. (*Su pierna [de él] duele.)
His legs hurt. His legs ache.	Le duelen (a él) las piernas. (*Sus piernas [de él] duelen.)
Her arm hurts. Her arm aches.	Le duele (a ella) el brazo. (*Su brazo [de ella] duele.)
Her arms hurt. Her arms ache.	Le duelen (a ella) los brazos. (*Sus brazos [de ella] duelen.)
Your foot hurts. Your foot aches.	Te duele (a ti) el pie. (*Tu pie [de ti] duele.) Le duele (a usted) el pie. (*Tus pies [de usted] duele.)
Your feet hurt. Your feet ache.	Te duelen (a ti) los pies. (*Tus pies [de ti] duelen.) Te duelen (a ti) los pies. (*Tus pies [de ti] duelen.)

Cuando en inglés se quiere expresar que a quien le duele algo no es a uno mismo, en lugar de utilizar el adjetivo posesivo "my", se utilizan los adjetivos posesivos correspondientes al resto de las personas (la traducción que aparece entre paréntesis, con letra más pequeña y encabezada por un asterisco es la traducción literal, pero no es la gramaticalmente correcta en español; la correcta es la que aparece encima de la literal y con letras de tamaño "normal").

His arm hurts

His leg aches

Hay que tener en cuenta que cuando el sujeto a quien le duele algo es plural ("they" ['ellos /as'], "we" ['nosotros /as'] o "you" [acepción 'vosotros /as' o 'ustedes']) los verbos "to hurt" y "to ache" siempre van a estar conjugados en tercera persona del plural, porque siempre serán varias las partes del cuerpo que duelan.

Their heads hurt
Their heads ache

English	Their right legs hurt. Their right legs ache.
Spanish	Les duele (a ellos/as) la pierna derecha. (*Sus piernas derechas [de ellos/as] duelen.)
English	Our left arms hurt. Our left arms ache.
Spanish	Nos duele (a nosotros/as) el brazo izquierdo. (*Nuestros brazos izquierdos [de nosotros/as] duelen.)
English	Your heads hurt. Your heads ache.
Spanish	Os duele (a vosotros/as) la cabeza. (*Vuestras cabezas [de vosotros/as] duelen.) Les duele (a ustedes) la cabeza. (*Sus cabezas [de ustedes] duelen.)

Examples:

English	Spanish
I got up with a headache .	Me levanté con dolor de cabeza .
I have a temperature .	Tengo fiebre .
My right foot hurts .	Me duele el pie derecho.
I have an acute pain in the stomach.	Siento dolor muy fuerte en el estómago.
I have a very bad cold .	Estoy muy resfriado .
How often do I have to take the medicine ?	¿Cada cuánto tiempo tengo que tomar el medicamento ?

1.-THE EURO (EL EURO)

Since the 1st of January 2002, the euro is the European single currency. The euro has replaced the former national currencies of several European countries located in the European Union (Spanish peseta, French franc, German mark, Italian lira, etc.) However nowadays there are still European countries that do not want to join the Euro (Norway, Sweden, United Kingdom, etc.) Despite the fact that the euro is the single currency in several European countries, each country has chosen its own design for one of the faces of the coin (for example, Spanish coins bear the portrait of Juan Carlos I.) The euro is a strong currency and its entry has meant a considerable effort for the countries, for people and for governments. But despite this fact, the euro entry has yielded a great many advantages, now it is not necessary to exchange national money to pay along the most of the countries of Europe and we have a currency able to compete with any of the currencies of the world.

GRAMMAR

1.-PHRASAL VERBS (VERBOS CON PARTICULAS)

Los “phrasal verbs” son verbos con partículas que están compuestos por un verbo y una preposición o un adverbio. Éstos adquieren un nuevo significado (diferente de aquel compuesto por la suma de sus componentes) es decir, que no debemos guiarnos por nuestra intuición y debemos aprendérmolos de memoria dentro del contexto de cada situación

Algunos de los “phrasal verbs” más utilizados en inglés son:

Verb	Preposition	Translation
turn	on	encender [un aparato eléctrico]
	off	apagar [un aparato eléctrico]
	up	subir [el volumen]; presentarse
	down	bajar [el volumen]
take	off	quitarse [ropa]; despegar [avión]
	out	sacar
put	on	ponerse [ropa]
give	up	dejar, abandonar, renunciar a [un hábito, vicio]
fill	in	rellenar [un impreso, solicitud]
look	after	cuidar
	for	buscar

1.1.-HOW TO FORM PHRASAL VERBS (FORMACIÓN DE VERBOS CON PARTICULAS)

En la mayoría de los “phrasal verbs”, si el objeto es un sustantivo, éste puede colocarse entre el verbo y la preposición (o adverbio) o después de la preposición (o adverbio). Por lo tanto:

Example:
English	Put on your coat . or Put your coat on.
Spanish	Ponte tu abrigo .

Sin embargo, si el objeto es un pronombre, éste siempre va entre el verbo y la preposición (o adverbio). Por lo tanto:

Example:
English	Put it on. right Put on it. wrong
Spanish	Póntelo.

Recuerde que el objeto de algunos “phrasal verbs” siempre va después de la preposición o adverbio, es decir, que no es posible intercalar el objeto entre el verbo y la preposición (o adverbio). Tal es el caso de los verbos sombreados en amarillo en la tabla de la izquierda.

English	I looked after the children while their parents were away.
Spanish	Cuidé a los niños mientras sus padres estaban fuera.
English	She looked for the keys for more than two hours.
Spanish	Buscó las llaves durante más de dos horas.
English	I have decided to give up smoking .
Spanish	He decidido dejar de fumar .
English	All applicants have to fill in an application form .

Nótese que para saber cuál es la partícula que hay que utilizar en la respuesta, primero hay que prestar atención al tiempo verbal en el que se expresa la oración y, a continuación, el auxiliar que rige a ésta. Por lo tanto, si el verbo de la oración principal está en presente y no es un verbo anómalo (es decir, un verbo que no sea el verbo "to be"), la respuesta deberá hacerse con "do" o "does". Por el contrario, si el verbo en presente es el verbo "to be", la respuesta será con "are", "is" o "am". A lo largo de todo el libro se han visto detalladamente este tipo de cuestiones, en consecuencia, si existen dudas de qué auxiliar es el que rige a una oración en futuro, condicional, presente continuo... sería necesario remitirse a la unidad en la que se explican todos estos aspectos.

READING COMPREHENSION

1.-STONEHENGE

The most famous Neolithic monument of England, Stonehenge, was built in several phases on a sacred site on the Salisbury Plain from 2750 BC to 1500 BC. In form, Stonehenge consists of a series of concentric rings of standing stones around an altar stone at the center. Stonehenge is surely Britain's greatest national icon, it symbolizes mystery, power and endurance. Its original purpose is unclear to us, but some people believe that it was a temple made for the worship of ancient earth deities. It is considered to be an astronomical observatory for marking significant events on the prehistoric calendar (a powerful cult of sun worship seems to have dominated this monument.) Nevertheless other people think that it was a sacred site for the burial of ancient high-ranking citizens from the societies. In any case, the ancient participant in the rites of Stonehenge would experience a deep connection with nature.

2.-ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS. (CONTESTA LAS SIGUIENTES PREGUNTAS)

- Where is Stonehenge situated?
- What does Stonehenge symbolize?

- There is certainly a strong connection between the ancient participant in the rites of this monument and nature. T / F

REGULAR VERBS

PREFACE

A continuación se ofrece el modelo de conjugación para los verbos regulares de los tiempos verbales que se ven en el libro. El presente anexo aparece dividido en dos partes principales: la conjugación activa (active voice) y la conjugación pasiva (passive voice). A su vez cada parte cuenta con tres bloques:

En el primer bloque están recogidas las formas afirmativas (affirmative form), negativas (negative form) e interrogativas (question form) de los siguientes tiempos verbales:

- el presente simple de indicativo (simple present)
- el pretérito perfecto de indicativo (present perfect)
- el presente continuo de indicativo (present continuous)
- el pretérito imperfecto y el pretérito indefinido de indicativo (simple past)
- el pasado continuo de indicativo (past continuous)
- el futuro simple de indicativo (future)
- el futuro próximo de indicativo (future with “going to” [present])
- el pasado próximo de indicativo (future with “going to” [past])
- y el condicional simple de indicativo (conditional)

En el segundo bloque se recogen las formas afirmativas y negativas del imperativo (imperative).

Por último, en el tercer bloque se presentan las formas conocidas en español como “no personales del verbo”, a saber, el infinitivo (infinitive), el participio pasado (past participle) y el gerundio (gerund).

* Cabe señalar que por defecto se ofrece la forma interrogativa para la segunda persona del singular (“you”, ‘tú’, ‘usted’) y del plural (“you”, ‘nosotros/ as’, ‘ustedes’) ya que esta forma suele coincidir con el resto de las formas verbales para el mismo tiempo a excepción, claro está, del pronombre personal que sirve como sujeto (“you”, “we”, “they”, etc.). En el caso de que dicha forma verbal sea diferente para otra persona (como suele ocurrir con la primera y tercera del singular [‘I’, ‘yo’; he/ she/ it, ‘él/ ella/ *ello’]) dicha forma también aparece recogida.

PREFACE

En los siguientes glosarios están recogidos todos los términos de la lengua inglesa que aparecen en el presente libro. Dichos términos están ordenados alfabéticamente y vienen acompañados por su equivalencia en español.

Además de su equivalencia en español, de cada término se ofrece información a cerca de su categoría gramatical en inglés y, en el caso de que sea necesario, si dicho término pertenece al inglés usado en Reino Unido o en América (ver neighbour; neighbor). Además, para evitar confusiones, las equivalencias en español que puedan resultar ambiguas vienen acompañadas por una aclaración entre corchetes (ver wear).

Para facilitar la consulta del glosario, las equivalencias en español de los adjetivos en inglés se dan únicamente en la forma masculina singular, a pesar de que dicha forma inglesa también equivalga a las formas del femenino singular y plural y del masculino plural en español. Así, en la entrada African aparece como equivalente en español africano, pero ha de sobreentenderse que también puede equivaler a africana, africanos y africanas. Los participios pasados recogidos en el glosario también reciben este tratamiento.

Bajo una misma entrada inglesa pueden aparecer:

1. Varias acepciones separadas entre sí por punto y coma. En este caso las diferentes acepciones hacen referencia a términos en español que, aunque puedan ser parecidos, no son equivalentes (ver bite).
2. Varias acepciones separadas entre sí por coma. Las diferentes acepciones hacen referencia a términos que se pueden considerar sinónimos entre sí en español (ver brilliant).
3. Además de las equivalencias en español, pueden aparecer términos compuestos o derivados del término en inglés que se ofrece como entrada (ver board) o locuciones de uso frecuente en la que dicho término aparece (ver chemist).

Puede haber dos o más entradas en inglés idénticas. Esto se debe a que determinadas palabras en inglés, dependiendo de su uso, funcionan con diferentes categorías gramaticales, existiendo entre sus significados una evidente relación (ver *act*¹; *act*²) o no (ver *can*¹; *can*²), o a que al menos una de ellas pertenece al inglés británico o al americano (ver *bill*¹; *bill*²).
